ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is my duty to sincerely acknowledge the individuals and institutions for the help that I have received during my research work. Without their timely help it would not have been possible for me to complete it in time. At the outset, I am deeply indebted to Dr. S. Rajendran, M.A., M.Phil, Ph.D., Professor & Head, Department of Economics, Periyar University, Salem, T.N. my thesis adviser for his very consistent encouragement and guidance all through the research work. I thank him profusely for the advice and the motivation he imbedded in me towards my research endeavour.

I am grateful to all my professors and Teachers notably Prof. Tulasimala, Chairperson, Department of Studies in Economics and Co-operation, University of Mysore, Prof. Leelavati, Prof. Manjappa, Dr. Indumati, Dr. S. Mahendra Kumar and Sri. Mallesh non-teaching staff. I thank my research colleagues Shankar, Siddaraju and Chandrashekar for their constant encouragement and continued support in my research work. My thanks are due to all the faculty members of the Department of Studies in Economics and Co-operation, University of Mysore, Mysore.

I am highly thankful to the Department of Studies in Economics and Co-operation, University of Mysore, Mysore to allow me to register for Ph.D. I am grateful to the sample farmers, Department of Agriculture, Department of Fisheries and Animal Husbandry, Mandya District, who helped me during my field survey, interviews and collection of statistical data, for the successful completion of this research work. I also express my sincere thanks to the staff of libraries, viz. University of Mysore, Mysore. Institute for Social and Economic Change, Bangalore. Department of Agriculture, Department of Fisheries & Animal Husbandry, Department of Statistics, Bangalore. Whenever I approached these people they were more cordial in providing all necessary documents, books, Journals, bulletins and other materials.
I express my special regards to Dr D.V. Gopalappa, I.D.S., University of Mysore, Mysore & Dr Annapurna, Head of the Department of Anthropology, University of Mysore, whose timely direction, advice and comments inspired me to complete my thesis work.

I express my regards to Prof G. Chandrashekhar, Department of Hindi, VVFGC, Mysore, Prof S.D.P. Khadri, D.B.C.C Mysore. My constant supporters D. Sunitha and Prathibha, have helped me to computerised the research work. My students Anuradha, Satyanaryan, Janani and Sinoj stood next to me in the completion of this work.

I am thankful to my Uncle P. Sundar and his wife Smt Nagarathna his daughters Pooja and Hamsha who have helped me in all the paths of my research work. I thank my sisters Savitha and Rashmi for their moral support without which this work would not have been completed. I am thankful to my brothers Arun Kumar.N and Dr Sunil H and his wife Shilpa. I thank my uncle Vivekanand for his humble support and my Aunts Nagarathna and Rajeshwari. I thank my husband N. Adarsh and my Father-in-law G.R. Nagarajiah and my Mother-in-law Nagalakshmi and their daughters and Son-in-laws for their moral support in completing this research work.

Last but not the least, I also express my gratitude to my parents Prof. P. Halage Gowda and Smt. Yashoda who were instrumental in completing this research work. I am grateful to their support and blessing they have bestowed on me.

I sincerely thank all those who have helped me directly or indirectly in completing this task.

Roopa.H