ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am highly indebted to my research supervisor Dr. Shobha Jagannath, Reader, Department of Studies in Botany, University of Mysore, Manasagangotri for her benevolent guidance, stimulating encouragement, candid suggestions and critical perusal of the manuscript.

I am grateful to Dr. Shylaja Dharmesh, Scientist, CFTRI, Mysore for her constructive criticism and valuable suggestions.

I express my gratitude to Dr. G.R. Shivamurthy, Professor and Chairman, Department of Studies in Botany, University of Mysore, Manasagangotri for his constant encouragement.

I wish to place on record my sincere thanks to Prof. T.C. Shivashankaramurthy, Prof. Shankar P. Hosmani, Prof. K.A. Raveesha and faculty members of Department of Studies in Botany, Manasagangotri for their encouragement and support.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not express my gratitude to the authorities of University Grants Commission, New Delhi, Directorate of Collegiate Education, Bangalore, University of Mysore and Maharani’s Science College for Women, Mysore, but for whose help I could not have accomplished the research work as a FIP research scholar.

My special thanks to Dr. M.K. Sudha Sowmyalatha, Assistant Environmental Officer, KSPCB, Mysore for her technical guidance and support.

I owe my thanks to my FIP colleagues and research scholars in the Department of Studies in Botany and Applied Botany, Manasagangotri for their timely support and encouragement.

I remember Prof. Parvathamma for her whole hearted moral support and encouragement.
My special thanks to my teachers Prof. K.A. Afzalunnisa and Prof. S. Negaveni for their kind inspiration and support at various stages of my research work.

My sincere thanks to Er. V. Jagannath, noted Environmental Scientist and activist Mysore for having extended diligent assistance throughout the research work.

I wish to express my deep appreciation to Dr. Babu, C.S.R.T.I for his generous help in carrying out Scanning Electron Microscopic studies.

I am grateful to Dr. Lancy D. Souza, faculty, Department of Psychology, Maharaja's College, Mysore for having initiated me into quantitative studies.

I am also indebted to Dr. Madhu, Dr. Gangadhar, Dr. Chandrashekar, Mrs. Tarakeshwari, Mr. K.S. Mahesh and Mr. Digital Babu, for their multifaceted support.

I place on record my gratitude to the officials of Karnataka State Pollution Control Board, Mysore, for their technical assistance and moral support.

I am grateful to the owners of Petrol Bunks at the study area for their kind hearted support.

I am deeply indebted to my beloved Parents, Husband and My family members (Brother, Sisters, Brother-in-laws, Sister-in-laws and their children) who have encouraged and strengthened me throughout the study period.

I am also grateful to Mr. Praveen Kumar and Staff, Softouch, Mysore for their kind typographic design and secretarial assistance.

HEMAVATHI. C.
