APPENDIX – B

PUSH-BUTTON1: This is subprogram, which is made for comparison results of original configuration case and TS configuration case.

Figure B. Voltage comparison of original configuration case and TS configuration case model

Original Image button is used to show the image of original configuration case, when the tie lines are opened.

Test Image button is used to show the image of view for TS configuration case image, when the tie lines are closed and 6,11,14,28 and 31 lines are opened.

Clear button is used as an option to clear the data of executed program from the concern objective window.

Three graphs of the voltage comparisons are plotted as shown in Figure B.

Exit button is used for quit from the main program.