ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my research supervisor, Dr. B. P. Mahesh Chandra Guru, Professor and Chairman, Department of Studies in Communication & Journalism, University of Mysore, Manasagangotri for his benevolent guidance, stimulating encouragement, candid suggestions and critical perusal of the manuscript. This study was conducted under his able guidance efficiently.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not express my gratitude to Dr. Lalith Achooth, Associate Professor, Department of Dairy Economics and Business Management, Dairy Science College, UAS, Bangalore, but for whose help I could not have accomplished the statistical analysis of data. I remember Dr. Lalith Achooth with gratitude.

I owe my thanks to Dr. G. S. Bhat, Head of the Division, Dairy Science College and Dr. H. G. Ramachandra Rao, Associate Professor, Department of Dairy Technology, but for whose help I could not have taken up this research work.

My special thanks to Dr. R. Kushal Kumar, Reader, DOS in Communication and Journalism, University of Mysore for having initiated me into quantitative studies and extended diligent assistance at various stages of my research work.

I wish to place on record my sincere thanks to Dr. M. S. Nataraj, Associate Professor, Department of Agricultural Extension, Dr. B. V. Venkateshiah, Professor and Head, Department of Dairy Technology and Dr. K. Shantha Kumari, Senior Scientist, ACRIP, UAS, Bangalore for their kind encouragement and support.

My sincere thanks to the officials of Milk Union, Mysore District for their kind cooperation at the stage of data collection. I also thankful to the faculty members and students, DOS in Communication and Journalism for their multi-faceted assistance.

I place on record my indebtedness to dairy farmers of Kolar and Chamarajanagar districts for their kind response at the stage of data collection.

I am also indebted to Mr. Srinath Urs, Technical Assistant, DOS in Communication and Journalism for his secretarial assistance.

This research project has been completely successfully mainly because of my wife Smt. Vani and children N. Jayalakshmi, N. Divya Kumari and N. Santosh Kumar who extended constant love, encouragement and support.
