ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I thank the benevolent and merciful God for directing my path with everlasting love and giving me new strength, courage, determination and immeasurable virtue called patience when I could not see one step ahead.

I wish to express my sincere appreciation and gratitude to the large number of people who have contributed to the preparation and completion of this thesis.

With respect and gratitude, I would like to thank my research guide, Dr. N. Nagaraja from whom I have learnt more than I could have ever imagined. I was very fortunate and grateful to have Dr. N. NAGARAJA as my guide. He constantly provided advice, guidance and direction to me both professionally and personally. He was always available to support and encourage all my endeavours with great deal of enthusiasm, and taught me how to narrow down a research topic and focus on the issue at hand. This body of work would not have been possible without his quality of uncompromising leadership and his able guidance.

My special thanks are to Chairman of Board of Studies in Commerce, Prof. B.H Suresh, Department of Studies in Commerce, University of Mysore. I thank DR.K.NAGENDRA BABU Professor and Chairman, Department of Studies in Commerce, University of Mysore. I also would like to thank senior members of the faculty and staff of the Department of Studies Commerce, University of Mysore, Prof.G.KOTRESHWAR, Dr.H.RAJASHEKAR, Dr.B.NAGARAJU, and Dr. M.L. Ashok for all their comments and input on this work.

I am extremely thankful to my wife Smt. G.Shalini my beloved daughters Bhoomika and little Deepanvitha and my brother S.Umesh, father Sri V.Swamy, Sri T.J.Venkatesh, Smt.Malini, Akshay, Manju and In-laws Govindaswamy and Leelavathi uncle Sri.Mallikarjuna, who have helped me during my research work and I am extremely happy to convey my heartfelt gratitude to them for giving me moral courage and support during difficult times in the course of my research work.
I am extremely thankful to Dr. M. Prabhu, for his valuable helps and suggestions. I sincerely thank Dr. Manju and my friends for their help and assistance.

Last, but not the least, I would like to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to all the people who have directly or indirectly supported me in successful completion of my research work.
