ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

It is my privilege to express my deep sense of gratitude and feelings of indebtedness to Dr. R.K. Patel, Professor and Head, Division of Dairy Economics, Statistics and Management, National Dairy Research Institute, Karnal for his benevolent guidance, constructive criticism and sustained encouragement during the course of this study.

I am grateful to Dr. B. Sundaresan, Director, National Dairy Research Institute, Karnal, Dr. T. S. Sohl, Professor and Head, Division of Dairy Economics, and Dr. P. Kumar, Agricultural Economist, Indian Agricultural Research Institute, New Delhi, for their keen interest and help in the formulation of this project.

I owe a debt of gratitude to Dr. I. J. Singh, Professor and Head, Department of Agricultural Economics, Haryana Agricultural University, Hisar, for his active interest, valuable suggestions and constructive comments for the preparation of this manuscript and for providing me all necessary help for the completion of this study.

I extend my grateful acknowledgements to all the faculty members of the Department of Agricultural Economics, Haryana Agricultural University, Hisar, particularly Dr. R. P. Singh, Dr. A. C. Gangwar, Dr. D. S. Nandal, Dr. S. D. Chamola and Dr. U. K. Pandey, for their wise counselling and critical comments in the preparation of this manuscript.
I am thankful to the General Manager, Northern Railway, New Delhi, all the Cattle Fair Officers in Haryana, farmers of the study area and all others who extended their nice cooperation in data collection for this study.

My special thanks go to Mrs. and Mr. J.P. Dhaka, scientist (Dairy Economics) who did their best in providing me a homely atmosphere during my stay at Karnal.

Finally, I express my thanks to my family members particularly my wife Aruna for her help in many ways.

Sh. J.K. Sirchar deserves my all appreciation for taking trouble in typing this manuscript at a short notice.
