ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I am indebtedly thankful to Dr. U. Lakshminarayana my research guide and Reader, Department of Education, Regional Institute of Education (NCERT), Bhopal, who is the sole and spirit of my work and whose guidance initiated, inspired and ignited to do this research work. His indispensable inspiration at every required stage enabled the task of research evolved into a complete one.

I am extremely thankful to Prof. Venkataiah, who was with Post Graduate Department of studies in education, University of Mysore, Mysore, extended his supportive hand to have my moves towards this research work.

I am very much thankful to Dr. G. Viswanathappa, Lecturer, RIE, Mysore, for all the timely information for this research work and specifically for academic guidance and inspirational ideas right from my Masters Degree in Education.

I profusely thank the Principal, Regional Institute of Education, (NCERT), Mysore for providing me the opportunity to utilise the Library resources for my research work.

I profusely thank the Principal, Regional Institute of Education, (NCERT), Bhopal for providing me the opportunity to avail the Library resources for my research work.

I place on record my respectful thanks to all the Heads of the Primary Schools for their cooperation during data collection.

I am particularly thankful to the teachers who were spend their valuable time in filling up the questionnaires and for providing genuine information.

I am extremely thankful to Mrs. I Varalaxmi, Lecturer, College of Education, Arilova, Visakhapatnam for the supportive hand she extended during manuscript preparation and proof correction.

M.G.V. SEETHAPATHI