BIBLIOGRAPHY
I. PRIMARY SOURCES

A. PERSIAN SOURCES

Risala-i Zirrat, C1750, Mss in Edinburg

B. NON-PERSIAN SOURCES

C. EUROPEAN SOURCES

I. India Office Library and Records, London

European Manuscripts

"Historical Sketch of Taxes on the English Commerce in Bengal from 1633 to 1820".

Buchanan, Francis, "An Account of a Journey Undertaken by order of the Board of Trade, through the provinces of Chittagong and Tipperah in order to look out for the places most proper for the cultivation of spices (March-Mary, 1798), British Library, London.

Buchanan Hamilton (Mss), "Paper related to the District of Rongpur", India Office Library.

Bengal Public Consultation, 18th September, 1752.

Watts to Governor Drake and Fort William Council, Bengal Public Consultation, vol. XXVII, 15 August, 1755.

Siraj to Khwaja Wazid, 1 June, 1756.

Holwell to the Court of Directors, 10 August, 1757.

II. EUROPEAN CONTEMPORARY SOURCES

Bernier, Francis, Travels in the Mogul Empire AD 1656-68, Trans, Constable, Delhi, 1968.

Grant, James, "Finances of Bengal", in W K Firminger, Fifth Report, Calcutta, 1917-18.

II. SECONDARY SOURCES

Chandra, Satish, Medieval India Part II – Mughal Empire (1526-1748), New Delhi, 2000.

De, Barun, “Problems of the Study of Indian History with Particular Reference to Interpretations of the 18th Century”, Presidential Address to Indian History Congress, Dharwad Session, Delhi, 1989.

Dwivedi, Girish Chandra, The Jats – Their Role in the Mughal Empire, Delhi, 1989.

Guha, Amalendu, “Tribalism to Feudalism in Assam” in Indian Historical Review, vol. I, Delhi, 1974.

Habib, Irfan, "Colonisation of Indian Economy", in Essays in Indian History, Delhi, 1995.

Habib, Irfan, "Potentialities of Capitalistic Development in the Economy of Mughal Empire", in Essays in Indian History Towards a Marxist Perception, New Delhi, 1995.

Habib, Irfan, Agrarian System of Mughal India (1556-1707), New Delhi, 1999.

Kalita, Ramesh Chandra, Assam in Eighteenth Century, New Delhi, 1992.

Karim, Abdul, Murshid Quli Khan and His Times, Dacca, 1963.

