ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my heartiest gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Meghali Goswami, Assistant Professor, Department of Art History, Kala Bhavana, Visva Bharati University, Santiniketan under whose guidance and inspiration, I have dared to shape up my thesis. Her untiring efforts, inspirational advice and relentless guidance and support in all respects have encouraged me to start the research work. She has constantly facilitated me with her valuable suggestions and showed me the right track to proceed in my endeavor. I am sincerely grateful to her for infused in me the confidence and motivation to carry out my research work with assertion. It is only for the pain she has taken and the light she imparted on the various veiled aspects of the topic, for which I believe I have able to penetrate into the pros and cons of the subject. For all these, I would once again like to thank her from the core of my heart for keeping me enthusiastic, creative all along and instilling in me the confidence that I would come out successful in my attempt.

I express my deepest sense of gratitude to my co-supervisor Prof. Sajal Nag, Professor, Department of History, Assam University, Silchar whose huge wisdom, inspirational advice and relentless guidance and support in all respects have encouraged me during the end part of my research.

I would be lacking in my venture if I do not mention the support and advice provided to me time to time by my colleagues cum teachers as Mr. Sivan G., Associate Professor, Nirmal Kanti Roy, Head and Associate Professor, Abhibrata Chakraborty, Associate Professor, Debasish Chakraborty, Assistant Professor, Mr. Baharul Islam Laskar, Technical Assistant, Department of Visual Arts, Assam University, Silchar. They have been immense help in motivating me to take up the research work and their initial motivation and guidance has helped me a great deal.

I would also take the opportunity of thanking Prof. Bhuleswar Mate, Dean, Abanindranath Tagore School of Creative arts and Communication studies, for supporting and helping me to carry out the research work with ease and providing me the necessary guidance from time to time.
