ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This dissertation "The Freedom Movement in Madras City" (1885-1947) is the outcome of my research under the able guidance of Dr. R. Thandavan, M.A. (His.), M.A. (Pol. Sc.), M.Phil., D.P.M., Ph.D. Professor and Head, Anna Centre for Public Affairs, University of Madras, Chennai. I deem it a privilege to express my deepest sense of gratitude to my supervisor Dr. R. Thandavan for accepting me as his candidate and for his valuable guidance and suggestions in doing this thesis.

It is my bounden duty to express my sincere thanks to (Late) Dr. V. Johny, (Former Head of the Department of History, Pachaiyappa's College, Chennai and Principal, Pachaiyappa's College, Kancheepuram) for his scholarly guidance and encouragement. It is he who had initiated me to do Ph.D., research work under his guidance.

I sincerely express my profound gratitude to my well wisher and one of my family friends Dr. S. Mani, M.A., M.Phil., Ph.D., Formerly Head of the Department of History, Presidency College, Chennai and Principal, Govt. Arts College, Villupuram for his valuable suggestions at every stage in the preparation of the thesis.

I have profusely used the primary materials made available to me in the Tamil Nadu Archives. I thank the Commissioner of the Tamil Nadu Archives for giving me permission to consult the records in the Archives. My sincere and heartful thanks to Dr. M. Sundararajan, Tamil Nadu Archives for his timely advise for collection of primary and secondary sources in the Archives. But for his timely help I would have found it very difficult to collect the materials. I am also thankful to the authorities of the Connemara Public Library, Chennai, Maraimalai Adigal Library, Chennai and the Theosophical Society Library at Adyar, Chennai.
I interviewed a number of freedom fighters to get first hand-information about the freedom movement. Mention may be made in particular about Messers Sri Pada Sankar, Ma.Po. Sivaganam, R.R. Dalavai, C. Subramaniam and others. They provided me with very useful informations relating to the freedom movement. I am very grateful to them.

I will be ungrateful if I do not thank Dr. S.P. Thiagarajan, Vice-Chancellor, University of Madras, Dr. S. Karunanidhi, Registrar in-charge, University of Madras and Dr. V. Balu, Controller of Examinations, University of Madras for having granted me permission to do Ph.D., research work as a part-time candidate. I am thankful to Dr. Emmanuvel Divien, Former Professor, Department of History, University of Madras, Dr. G. Krishnamurthy, Dr. P. Ravishankar and Thiru. M. Gnanasekaran from Anna Centre for Public Affairs, University of Madras for their continuous support and encouragement in preparing the thesis. I profusely thank my friends and my family members for having given unstinted cooperation, active and passive in the preparation of the thesis.

[Signature]

V.S. KAMALAKKANNAN