ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This dissertation provides a critical study of Dosa and Mettā in Buddhism based on Theravāda Tipiṭaka Pāḷi Literature; it discusses problems and their solutions that come from human mind. For successful completion of this research project, there are many individuals who have encouraged and supported me directly or indirectly and therefore, I ardently feel that time, space and speeches will not be sufficient to express my sincere thanks to all those concerned people.

First of all, I would like to express my deep appreciation and heart-felt thanks to the Chancellor of Sitagū International Buddhist Academy (S.I.B.A.) Dr. Ashin Āniissara, Ashin Mahosadha, Administrator, Dr. Ashin Nandamālaṁbhivaṁsa, Rector, and Dr. Ashin Paṇḍitavaraṁśa, Registrar, for constant spiritual encouragement and kind-help in many ways.

I am further indebted to my preceptor Sayādaw, (U Paṇṇādhamma), assistant Sayadaw, U Sucitta, of Su Taung Pyeit monastery in my birth place and Dhamma-teacher Sayādaws of Maniyatabon Pariyatti Monastery in Mon Ywa and, Masoe Yein Pariyatti Institute in Mandalay, who showed me an extreme amount of patience in teaching Buddhism in Pāḷi.

I express my gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Jayanti Tripathy, Associate Prof, Centre of Advanced Study in Sanskrit, University of Pune, Pune, India, who played the most crucial task in the successful completion of this research project. She was kind enough in guiding me and help in correcting my entire research work.

I would like to express my obligations to all the faculties of the Centre and department for their help and cooperation. I thank Prof, Ujjwala Jha, Director for her support. And then I would like to thank the Authorities of University of Pune and the staffs of the Centre of Advanced Study in Sanskrit, University of Pune, Pune, Ph.D. section, the Faculty of Arts and the International Students Centre (I.S.C) of University of Pune for their timely help.

I am very grateful to my colleagues and friends to have gathered the relevant material discussed in it. I would especially like to thank the following for their help: Dr. Ashin Paññāsiḥālaṅkāra, Dr. Ashin Sundara, Ashin Paññinda, M.A. (English) Ashin Kañcana, M.A (Pali & Buddhism), Dr. Paññāseṭṭha, Ashin Sirinda (Ph.D. Thesis) Ashin Vīryacāra (Ph.D. Thesis). Dr. Indācariya also played a crucial role in providing the inspiration needed to pursue my objective. I truly wish to express my gratitude to all those who have contributed directly or indirectly to my work.

More especially, I wish to thank my parents, (U Pyu and Daw Aye Mi) and my lovely siblings, Ko Mya Aung, Ma Pyi Than and brothers and sisters who offered me the emotional support throughout my life till now and my shindayikamagyī, Daw Khin May who supported me to become a Buddhist novice (sāmanera) in 1983.

Again, I could not forget to give my thanks to my foster parents, U Myint Oo & Daw San Myint family (Ba Htoo, Mandalay), (Daw Khin Maw), U Ba Myint & Daw Than Than Aye family (Yahandaka & Yahadayikama) and U Tin Maung & Daw Pyune family (Mandalay) who emotionally and financially encouraged and supported me to undergo all these years of study.

Finally, I would like to extend my sincere thanks to U Chit Tin & Daw Yee family (Kyawn Kone), U Than Lwin & Daw Khin Thein family (Yangon), U Aung Tin & Daw Mya Thein family, U Sit Kyaw & Daw Khin Khin family, Ma Mya Mya Swe & Ma Aye Mon Than family and other supporters who generously supported me whatever necessary while I was studying in Mandalay from 1988 to 1999.

This dissertation would not have been possible without the help of many other individuals, whose names are not recorded here, to them all I am extremely grateful.

Date: August, 2011

Ven- Pannobhasa

Place: University of Pune
Research Student