Acknowledgement

God directed me to a correct choice. I thank his providence for the guidance! The blessings of Almighty showered on me and thus encouraged me to Boone from my dauntless efforts and not to repine with a task that was really onerous.

With sheer delight, bliss and reverence, I acknowledge my sincere thanks to my esteemed supervisor Dr. A. R. Rather, Professor, Department of Education, University of Kashmir for his superb guidance and courteous attitude during the course of this investigation. His laudable and affable nature, fabulous suggestions and studious checking embolden me to complete my research work with great zeal.

I also admire Prof. N. A. Nadeem, Dean and Head, Department of Education, University of Kashmir, whose assiduity and support is responsible for making me a sedulous researcher.

My umpteen thanks are due to my venerable professors in the Department, Prof. G. M. Malik, Dr. M. Y. Ganaie, Dr. M. I. Mattoo, Dr. Mahmood Ahmad Khan, Dr. Tasleema, Dr. Nighat, Dr. Najma and madam Amina for their cordial help and constant encouragement. Thanks are due to the non-teaching staff members of the Department for their cooperation.

I would express my feeling of profound gratitude and manifold thanks to Dr. Tariq Rashid Jan, Assistant Professor, Department of Statistics, University of Kashmir, whose support and help grew my confidence and soared my ambitions. His endeavours to allay my trouble is beyond my expression.

I am awfully thankful to the library staff of my Department, Allama Iqbal Library, NCERT and NUEPA for providing cooperation and facilitating the required material. I can never forget Mr. Rajeev Solanki (NCERT), who stood by me at a juncture.
I would like to thank all the Heads and Teachers of schools of Kashmir Valley for their cooperation in collecting the data. I am also thankful to all the children who filled the questionnaires rightly that resulted in my stupendous performance.

All the credit goes to my Grandmother who always inspired me but could not wait to get elated at my success. I owe a sense of gratitude to my Parents whose encouragement was a great prop to continue my strenuous and industrious efforts.

I feel indebted to many of my associate research scholars- Mr. Showkat, Dr. Asraf, Dr. Sayed, Dr. Kounsar, Ms. Gulnaaz, Ms. Sugra, Ms. Tahira, Ms. Haleema, Mr. Lateef, Dr. Gulshan Wani, Mr. Fayaz, Mr. Shabir and especially Dr. Khalida for sparing her precious time with me and encouraged, spurred and helped me throughout the course of this investigation.

I am thankful to 'Virus Computers' for publishing this thesis and bringing it out expeditiously and efficiently.
