ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the completion of this thesis, there are countless debts incurred that can never be adequately repaid. To render an expression of simple thanks seems at once inadequate, yet the most appropriate thing to do. First, my thanks must go to my guide Dr. A.H. Zargar, Reader, Department of Education, the University of Kashmir, Srinagar, whose clear thinking, sympathetic nature and insistence on better quality inspired me to work hard. But for his sincere devotion, constant encouragement and sustained interest in my work, the study would not have been completed.

I have all the appreciations for Prof. A.G. Madhosh, Dean and Head, Department of Education, the University of Kashmir and Prof. G. Rasool, Dean and Head, Department of Education, Jammu University who, despite their heavy schedule of engagements, offered many valuable suggestions and critical comments during the course of the study. Their distinguished expert guidance enlightened me at all the stages of this study.

I am indebted to Prof. Mohammad Miyan, Jamia
Kllla lalanla.r ProT.M.Ralna, NCBERT, New Delhi.,
