Photo Scan
Eight Assam Rifles Office at Kanchanpur, Tripura which provided polythene sheets and other necessary things to the Reang refugees in the camps when the refugees arrived there in 1997.

The author with the Mizoram Bru Displaced People's Forum's (MBDPF) leaders in the Naisingpara Camp, Tripura.
The author is talking to the D.S.P., Mamit (Mizoram), sitting by side, her mother.

Interviewing a group of the Reang refugees at Naisingpara camp of Tripura.
The road to Bawngva village, a Reang settlement in the Mamit district of Mizoram.

A Reang House in the Dampa Rengpui village near Mamit.
Reang women at the Naisingpara camp in Tripura.

Author conversing with a Christian Missionary lady at Dampa Rengpui village in the Mamit district of Mizoram.
Conversing with an educated Reang boy at Naisingpara camp of Tripura.

A Reang household at the Naisingpara Camp of Tripura.
At the Refugee Camp with its inmates at Naisingpara.

Discussing the Reang issues with an educated man (Naisingpara camp).
An old Reang lady in the Naisingpara Camp.

A traditional Reang lady.
At Naisingpara Camp, a Reang family with their small belongings.

In the Rest House (DC's establishment) Mamit, the author and her mother.
Busy with an interview session at Naisingpara Camp (Tripura).

Conversing with an ex-BNLF leader at Naisingpara camp, Tripura.
In the conversation with the MBDPF leaders at Naisingpara camp, Tripura.

Conversing with the ex-BNLF leaders at Naisingpara camp, Tripura.
Author standing on a platform with some Reang girls in the Naisingpara Camp.

A view of the Reang village, Bawnga in Mamit district.