LIST OF TABLES

4.1 : Division of Reang Clans according to Bhabananda Mukherjee

4.2 : Division of Reang Clans in the Census Report of 1901

4.3 : Reangs Preference for Occupation

4.4 : Reasons for Unequal Treatment

4.5 : Reasons for Unequal Treatment inspite of their conversion to Christianity

4.6 : Reasons behind the Change of Religion

4.7 : Observance of the Traditional Festival (Buisu)

4.8 : Reangs desire to revert to the Traditional Religion

4.9 : Beneficiaries from the Conversion to the New Faith

4.10 : Preference to wear Mizo Dress

4.11 : Mental Complex and Superior Culture, the Reang feelings towards the Mizos

4.12 : Reangs desire to form a Political Party

4.13 : Reasons behind the formation of a Political Party

4.14 : Reangs desire for ADC

5.1 : The list of houses destroyed/ demolished/ burnt down in Mizoram, according to the Bru National Union.

(x)
5.2 : The list of Reang women tortured by the miscreants, their age and villages
5.3 : Places of Worship destroyed in Mizoram during the turmoil
5.4 : Name of the villages and districts wherefrom the Reangs migrated to Tripura
5.5 : List of villages in and around the Projected Areas
5.6 : Reasons behind the Reang exodus
5.7 : Number of Reang families who took shelter in the Hailakandi district of Assam
5.8 : List of houses burnt and name of the villages affected according to the Government of Mizoram
6.1 : The number of population in 1997 (claimed by the Bru Refugee Committee)
6.2 : The list of Reangs who left Mizoram for Tripura
6.3 : The name of camps and the number of families of the refugees on March 12, 2004 (claimed by the Bru National Union)
6.5 : Relief materials supplied by the Government and the responses of the inmates
6.6 : Number of families and distribution of rice at various relief camps for the period, August 8-31, 2000 (Government Record)

6.7 : Number of families and distribution of rice at various relief camps for the period, October 1-15, 2002 (Government Record)

6.8 : Number of families and distribution of rice at various relief camps for the period, February 1-15, 2003 (Government Record)

6.9 : Number of families and distribution of rice at various relief camps for the period, July 16-31, 2004 (Government Record)

6.10 : Number of families and distribution of rice at various relief camps for the period, January 1-15, 2006 (Government Record)

6.11 : Number of families and distribution of rice at various relief camps for the period, January 1-16, 2007 (Government Record)

6.12 : Number of families and distribution of rice at various relief camps for the period, January 17-31, 2007 (Government Record)

6.13 : Inmates views about the camps, happy/unhappy

6.14 : Place of preference/choice, Mizoram or Tripura
6.15 : Responses of the inmates, may return/ may not return to Mizoram without getting their demand fulfilled

6.16 : Reasons behind the non-achievement of autonomy and the Reangs response on it

6.17 : The name of villages where the transit camps are made and the number of families of the surrendered BNLF

6.18 : Reangs urge for militancy

6.19 : The number of Reangs already returned to Mamit District since 2000

6.20 : The number of Reangs already returned to Kolasib District since 2000

6.21 : The number of Reangs already returned to Lunglei District since 2000

6.22 : The number of Reangs already returned to Lawngtlai District since 2000

6.23 : List of Reangs returned to Mizoram between November 5 and 29, 1997

6.24 : Possibility of achieving ADC and the responses of the Reangs on it.