ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset of this writing, I thank the Almighty, who enabled me providing with the mental strength and courage to overcome the hurdle and misfortunes I had to face at my working place, Abhayapuri, to complete the long process of this laborious work in time.

I express my sincere reverence to the departed souls of my esteemed teachers Prof. Syed Shamsul Huda, Rtd. HoD, Arabic, GU, Dr. Mohammad Yahya Tamizi, Rtd. Professor and HoD, Islamic Studies, Cotton College, Gauhati, Dr. Rupchand Ali, Reader in Arabic, G U and my senior colleague Md. Siddique Ali (1949-2004), who used to stimulate me for undertaking a research on a topic, similar to the present study. Their valuable suggestions, advices and inspirations had forced me into going a long way before I started my journey. May Allah grant a Divine Peace and Mercy to these respective souls.

I consider myself to be very much fortunate to get a scholar like Dr. Abdul Musabbir Bhuiya, Professor in Arabic, Assam University, Silchar as the Supervisor of my work. It would have not been possible to complete the work without his scholarly advice and knowledgeable guidance in the various steps. My expression of thanks and gratefulness is quite insufficient for his nobility, greatness and sacrifice.

I am indebted to a number of scholars and enlightened persons who have assisted me from farthest places providing with valuable suggestions and rare materials; two of them I am personally acquainted to are: a national award recipient and Rtd. Professor K V Veeran Moideen of Calicut University, Kerala and Dr. Mohammad Shahidullah, formerly Principal of Calcutta Madrasa College and Reader in Arabic, Calcutta University; and some of them whom I know only through letters or Telephone are: Mr. M I Quddusi, Director (Epigraphy), Arabic and Persian Inscriptions, ASI, Nagpur, Prof. Isamuddin Sarkar of North Bengal University, Inamul Hazarika an Electronic Journalist of Sibsagar, Md. Hasib Ahsan, an SBI employee of Shillong, and so on. All of them will remain as my sources of inspiration.
I do acknowledge the help and cooperation of many Organizations, Institutions and individuals: such as the Director, Secondary Education, Director, Elementary Education, Deputy Director, State Madrasa Education, Assam, Inspectors of Schools, District Elementary Education Officers, Office of the GU, AHSEC and SEBA, Principals, Head Masters or Superintendents of various institutions and District or Zonal Examination Boards of several Districts for providing different kinds of relevant information.

I have accessed a number of libraries in and outside the State particularly, National Library, Kolkata, K K Handiqui Library, G U, Department of Historical and Antiquarian Studies, Guwahati, and Abhayapuri College Library. I am indebted to the ample generosity of these library authorities. I also acknowledge my indebtedness to the authors of all those works I have consulted, referred to and quoted in my discussion.

My sincere thanks are due to Mr. Noor Mohammed, Principal, Lengtisinga H S School for his erudite suggestions with many 'this and that' for this painstaking mission, as my friend, philosopher and guide. In this way, I am grateful to a host of my colleagues, friends and well-wishers who provided me with different materials, information and assistance in various steps of this work. Here, it is not possible to mention the names of all.

It is my foremost duty to thank my Father and pray for my deceased mother, who's on tap inspirations and good wishes lead me to dream a dream for a research work leading to the degree of Ph. D. I spared no pains to translate my father’s dream by coming out with the final findings of my research.

At last but not the least, I express the pleasure and pride that my beloved wife Mrs. Suriya Begum Bakshi, who has been standing by me as the best source of my patience and diligence while preparing the thesis. Similarly my loving sons 'Ahram' and 'Muneer' assisted me a lot by computing some data and designing the thesis in our Personal Computer.
