ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This research work "Trend and Pattern of Human Development in Assam" is a part of the major UGC project entitled "Status of Human Development in North Eastern States", conducted by the Department of Economics, Assam University, under the supervision of Prof. Keya Sengupta. My research endeavour for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy would remain incomplete without expressing my gratitude to all those who helped, encouraged and supported me in this work.

I convey my heartfelt gratitude and indebtedness to my venerable teacher and guide Professor Keya Sengupta, Dean, School of Social Sciences, Assam University, for her constant guidance, Supervision and encouragement during the entire period without whom the present work would have been impossible.

My deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Niranjan Roy, Head of the Department of Economics, Assam University, who has been great source of inspiration to me. I am also grateful to Dr. Alok Sen, Department of Economics, Assam University for his support.

In putting together this research work, I pay my thanks to many individuals, and organizations. At the early days of my research I received support from Prof. P. Nayek, NEHU. I also received valuable support from Prof. Biswajit Chatterjee, Jadavpur University, Dr. N.C. Nayek, IIT, Kharagpur, Anu Hazarika, IIIBM, Guwahati, OKD Institute, Guwahati, IIIBM Library, Guwahati, IIE Library Guwahati, North Eastern Hill University Library, Shillong, Central Library, Assam University, NEDFi, Guwahati.
Bitopon Bordoloi, NEDFi . I am grateful to University Grants Commission (UGC) for its financial support in the form of fellowship. My thanks due to Sri Suman Choudhury of the office of the Directorate of Economics and Statistics, Silchar, Govt. of Assam for providing me the necessary secondary data from time to time.

My sincere thanks to those who have helped me in collecting primary data for my study. Warmest thanks to Dr. Ashim Kumar Das, NIT Silchar for his help and support.

It is my duty to state how much I am indebted to my family members for their moral support, sacrifices, blessing, love, good wishes and encouragement.

I express my heartfelt thanks to my friends for their help and support.

I would also like to thank Mr. Abhijit Roy, for his patient typing and retyping the text with extra personal care and interest.
