Acknowledgement

In the first place I express my deepest gratitude to Dr R K De, my guide, for his scholarly guidance and supervision of the work. It was a privilege to work under him.

I owe a deep debt of gratitude to the University Grants Commission (UGC) for financial assistance through Minor Research Project. I am grateful to Assam University, Silchar for providing me the facilities in conducting the research. I am also thankful to the members of the faculty of the Department of History, viz., Prof. J K Samal, Dean, School of Social Sciences, Assam University, Dr Sajal Nag, Reader and Head, Department of History, Assam University for their suggestions in preparing the work. I express my sincere thanks to the members of the staff of the Assam University Library; District Record Room, Cachar; Indian Tea Association, Surma Valley Branch; District Library, Guwahati; State Archives, Guwahati; West Bengal State Archives; National Library, Calcutta; Tribal Research Centre, Ranchi; Government Record Room, Shillong; Sacred Heart
Theological College Library, Shillong and National Archives, New Delhi.

I record my deep sense of gratitude to Mr Sanaton Mishra, Hari Prasad Dhuni, Ratan Kahar, Kunjya Bibari Misra, Dr Amalendu Guhat and others who gave valuable information regarding the tea garden labourers. I am thankful to Mr Y Raj Bihari Singh who has taken so much of pain in going through the work for possible commission and omission in expression of the thoughts and ideas.

I am thankful to Mr Pinakpani Nath Purkayastha for composing and printing the thesis.

Lastly, I record my appreciation and thankfulness to my wife Bhanulata for providing me all kinds of inspiration and assistance in completing the work in time.

Luke Daimati