

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am privileged to express my deepest sense of gratitude to Prof. G.V. Ajjappa, Dean, Faculty of Law, Karnatak University, Dharward, who accepted me as his student to do the research work and gave valuable guidance and support to complete the work. I am deeply indebted to Hon'ble Justice Dr David Annoussamy, who encouraged me to take the particular topic for research and also helped me in getting the relevant books, documents in French. Discussions with him on number of occasions revealed fund of information and insight into the French Industrial Relation System. He has been a constant source of encouragement. I am also thankful to Mr Cyril Antony, Deputy Secretary to Government of Pondicherry, who was formerly in charge of French Archives for helping in collecting the relevant data for my work. I express my thanks to Mr C. Adimoulame, Retd. Sub-Judge and Mr Jaganou Diagou, Advocate, who were kind enough to translate the relevant Arrêtés and Décrets and some of the provisions of the French Labour Code (Code du Travail). I also express my thanks to Mr V.R. Kotre, Librarian, Karnatak University Law College, Dharawad and Mr K.V.V. Satyanarayana, Librarian, Dr. Ambedkar Government Law College, Pondicherry, for rendering all assistance, which facilitated my work. I am also thankful to Mr N. Thiruvengadasamy, for typing out the documents, which are in French. I express my deep gratitude to Miss S. Rajalakshmi for her unstinted co-operation and typing out the manuscripts neatly and in the earliest possible time. I express my thanks to my colleagues, who extended their co-operation.

S.G.BHAT.