ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am indebted to Dr. T.K. Meti for his continuous guidance of the completion of my thesis. He also helped me in securing UNICEF's visiting Fellowship for University Teachers for the year 1970-71.

This brought me to University of Bombay—Centre for Advanced Study in Industrial Economics. I visited University Library and Library of Tata Institute of Social Sciences.

In the year 1971 I had the benefit of attending and participating the summer workshop in Research Methodology at Tambaram, Madras jointly organised by Madras Institute of Development Studies and ICSSR, New Delhi.

I was profited by discussion with Dr. S.D. Punekar of TISS, Dr. Reddy of Venkateshwar University and Shri Chinchankar of Employers Federation of India, Bombay.
