ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The author expresses his deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to Dr. G.N. Pradeep Kumar, Professor and Head, Department of Civil Engineering, under whose guidance this thesis work has been carried out. Mere words not suffice to place on record the erudite guidance, sustained encouragement, constructive comments and inspiring discussions with him during the course of this work. The author wishes to record that he considered himself fortunate to have worked under him. He in fact has been the source of inspiration for this work.

The author would like to place on record the encouragement given by Dr. R. Rangarajan, Chairman, VEL-TECH group of Institutions and other colleagues in the institute.

The author is greatly indebted to Prof. P. Mallikarjuna, Prof. A.V. Narasimha Rao, Prof. J. Karthikeyan, Prof. K. Nagendra Prasad, Prof. K. Mallikarjuna Rao, Prof. I.V. Ramana Reddy and Prof. M. Srimurali for providing various facilities and kind words of encouragement during work.

The timely assistance rendered during experimentation by Dr. K. Jayachandra, T. Murali, K. Radhakrishna and K. Rama Rao is unforgettable.

The author is thankful to Hydraulic Engineering laboratory technical staff Sri G. Guruswamy, Sri E. Chandrachari, Sri M. Kariemullah Baig and Mr. E. Somasekhar for their help in instrumentation.

The author wishes to express his heartfelt thanks to Sri. K.R. Gangadhar for typing the thesis and contributing his time in getting the works transformed into a thesis format.
The timely unforgettable affection and love showered on me by Mr. L. Subramanyam and Mr. T. C. Kasi cannot be expressed in words.

The author wishes to express his gratefulness to his beloved parents, wife Smt. T. Vibai and sons Mr. T. V. Venkatesh Prabhu and Mr. T. V. Prakash for the love and affection bestowed on him over the years and for the forbearance and cheerful dispositions, which are vital for sustaining the effort required for completing this work.

Finally, the author would like to express his profound gratitude to the authorities of Sri Venkateswara University for according permission to carry out the present work in the department of Civil Engineering.
