ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

An expression of acknowledgement like other human expressions is inherently selective and exclusive. One can never fully acknowledge the debt of all the goodness, all the sweetness and all the kindness that one owes to one's parents, brothers, sisters, teachers, friends, colleagues, elders, youngsters and other known and unknown well-wishers one comes across throughout the highways and byways of life. Language as medium of expression can never translate the depth of one's feelings even through the figurative use of words and phrases.

Therefore, an exercise in acknowledgement has always got to be illustrative and never exhaustive. Therefore, a few words of admiration and appreciation to one's nearest and dearest ones, to all those who have directly or indirectly contributed to the formulation of the present study, would be in order. Therefore, I would like to register my deep gratitude:

To my parents for their blessings and love.

To my brothers and sisters for their ceaseless kindness and sweetness.

To my teachers for their guidance and help.

To professor Abdul Majid Matoo for emanating perennial kindness and unfailing sweetness in the Centre of Central Asian Studies, for sincerely behaving like a first among the equals and for treating us with a courtesy that passeth the understanding.
To professor Gulshan Majid working with whom is a "thing of beauty and joy forever", for his goodness that borders on divinity.

To Professor Abdul Salam Bhat for taking deep interest in my career all along and inspiring and encouraging me throughout my academic struggle.

To Professor Bashir Ahmad Dabla for guiding me in my Ph.D. programme and helping me in various other ways.

To Dr. Sanaullah Mir, Department of Philosophy, A.M.U. Aligarh, for going through this typescript, for offering significant suggestions and for being encouraging throughout my long association with Aligarh Muslim University.

To my friends in the Centre of Central Asian Studies: Dr. Ghulam Nabi Khaki, Dr. Muhammad Afzal Mir, Dr. Rafiuddin Makdoomi, Dr. Razia Rizvi, Dr. Darkhshan Abdullah, Dr. Abdul Rauf Shah, Dr. Afaq Aziz, Mr. Sheikh Talal and to Dr. Zafer Ahmed Reshi Department of Botany; Dr. Irshad Zia, Department of Political Science; Mr. Mushtaq Ahmad Bhat, Department of Commerce; Dr. Muhammad Yousuf, Department of History, Dr. Muhammad Sultan, Department of Geography; Dr. Muhammad Yousuf Bhat, Deputy Registrar; and Mr. Syed Khurshid, population Research Centre; for being so co-operative, Kind, helpful and nice all these years.

To Mr. Abdul Gani Mir for being so nice through thick and thin during my years at Aligarh.

To Mr. Muhammad Nasir Hussain, Department of Urdu, A.M.U., Aligarh, for extending to me every help during the preparation of this study as well as for his kind co-operation in various other ways.

To Khalid, Arshad and Muzammil for being so obedient and sweet.

To Library staff of the university of Kashmir, Aligarh Muslim University, Jawaharlal Nehru University and NIRD, Hyderabad, for being so helpful and co-operative.

To staff members of Tehsil Office, Kulgam, for extending to me all help during my field study.

To respondents of this study in Kulgam Tehsil for their informed, suave and illuminating responses.

To Azad Bhai for his impeccable typing.

To my wife, Shafu, for her unconditional love, for her support and caring, for being the nicest, the sweetest and the choicest companion and person she is and for looking after Ta'abir with extraordinary motherly commitment and dedication.

Allah alone is besought for help and on Him alone we depend.

Tareak Ahmed Rather
Dated: 25-02-2002
Centre of Central Asian Studies
University of Kashmir
Hazratbal, Srinagar