ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deepest and sincerest gratitude to my ever revered teacher and research supervisor, Professor G. Ram, Department of Sociology, Assam University, Silchar, for his honest mentoring, guidance, constant inspiration, encouragement and valuable advice that has immensely flown in completing this work. Also, I am thankful to Prof. B.K. Behera, Head, Department of Sociology, Assam University Silchar, for his kind support and to all the teaching and non-teaching staff of the department, for their cooperation and support extended during the course of the work.

I can never forget to express my profound heartfelt sense of gratitude to Prof. W. Raghumani Singh, Department of Manipuri, Assam University, Silchar, for his valuable suggestions, kindness and affection that largely contributed in the execution of this work.

I extend my sincere thanks to the villagers of Koutruk and Leimaram for their cooperation with me during the collection of emperical data. Without their cooperation the data base for the study could not have been built. I also extend my gratitude to my cousin (sister) - Romila, brother-in-law - Mr. Rajesh Singh, uncle- Amumcha Singh, aunty- Manileima Devi of Leimaram village and Mr. Priyokumar Singh, ward member, Phayeng Gram Panchayat for their support in the feild work.

I am also thankful to Ph. Joylakshmi, L. Bipin, S. Bishwaprem, Y. Priyambada, M. Priyadarshani, A. Bung, N. Dadina and Mr. Bimolchand for their help and support which I received in the course of this work.

I acknowledge the cooperation of the library staff of Assam University, Silchar, and Manipur University, Imphal, during the secondary data collection for the research work. At last, I can't be oblivious of my indebtedness to my family, especially my mother, for their constant inspiration and emotional support throughout the work.
