ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The writing of a dissertation can be a lonely and isolating experience, yet it is obviously not possible without the personal and practical support of numerous people. There are so many to thank.

First and foremost I take this opportunity to thank the Research & Development Centre and Department of Commerce, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore for accepting my proposal for this research and giving me an opportunity to undertake this study.

Now, I thank Dr. Shaji Thomas, Principal, Academy of Business Management & Tourism Research, Bangalore, my guide, for his continuous support, words of encouragement, quiet urgings and careful reading of all of my writing in the Ph.D. program. Without his relentless support, I could not have done what I was able to do. At this point, I should thank Prof. K. Raveendranath, for introducing Dr. Shaji Thomas to me.

This dissertation would not have been possible without the expert guidance of Dr. P.V.Raveendra, Professor, Department of Management Studies, MSRIT, Bangalore. He was instrumental in identifying and pinning down the topic for the study. Dr. H. Muraleedharan, Dean, MSRIM, Bangalore, has immensely contributed towards my dissertation. I thank them for their unrelenting support.

My enormous debt of gratitude can hardly be repaid to Mr. Muralikrishnan, GM, Business Support- HR, The Taj West End Hotel, Bangalore and Mr. Sanjeev Sharma GM, HR, ITC Windsor Manor Hotel, Bangalore, Mr. Raveendra, GM, HR, Royal Orchid Park Plaza, Bangalore for their critical comments and suggestion during the preliminary survey and framing of questionnaire of this study.

I take is opportunity to express my gratefulness to all the General Managers, HR Managers, Training Managers and all the employees of the various hotels who participated and contributed for the completion of this study.

I take this opportunity to thank Prof. Abby Mathew, Principal, M.S.Ramaiah College of Hotel Management, Bangalore, for giving me the freedom to pursue my research work along with my academic and administrative responsibilities.

I must acknowledge my friends, colleagues, research scholars and librarians who assisted, advised, and supported my research and writing efforts over the years.
I need to express my gratitude and deep appreciation to all the editors of the various Journals in which my articles related to the study have been published during this study. A specific mention in this regard has to be made about Dr. Sonia Gupta (Editor In Chief of IJOHAT) Professor, Leeds Metropolitan University -UK, India Campus, Bhopal, and Dr. B. Vijay Kumar, Principal, Kerala Institute of Tourism and Travel Studies, who have critically evaluated my papers.

Also, I take this opportunity to thank all the reviewers and editors of my research papers published in various journals and books such as Journal of Hospitality Application & Research (JOHAR), International Journal of Hospitality & Tourism (IJOHAT), International journal of Research in Commerce & Management, Indian Journal of Tourism and Hospitality Management, Apeejay Journal of Management & Technology, M.S. Ramaiah Management Review- A Research & Academic Journal of Business Management, Excel Books-New Delhi, and Bonfring Publishers- Coimbatore, Tamil Nadu.

I must be failing in my responsibility if I do not thank the members, especially Dr. Ganesan, Director R&D Centre BU, and Dr. Chellasamy, of the Doctoral Committee of Bharathiar University for their continuous critical reviews and suggestions for improvement which helped me a lot in the completion of my study.

The inspiration for doing the research came from my constant interaction with the students of my college regarding their experiences during the Industrial Exposure Training and subsequent Campus Placements over the years. I thank my students for sharing their experiences with me from where I could start this journey of my research.

Last, but not least, I thank my parents, for giving me this life and for educating me and my family who supported me during this study and given me all encouragement in this endeavor.

Above all, I pray the Almighty for all the blessings throughout my life.
