ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

A research is a long rigorous process that demands consistent motivation to put the best of effort and in doing so the researcher owes for support, direct or indirect, to people from different walks of life. This is an opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of all those concerned persons without whom the assignment would not have been completed.

At the outset I would like to convey my gratitude to my guide Prof. N.B. Biswas who not only guided me in this investigation but was always a source of inspiration to me. His support, both in my personal as well as in my academic life, is unmatched. I dare not to return for his contribution in making me what I am today. However, I remember him for his contribution towards the completion of this research and wish him good health always.

I am also thankful to my colleague Shri Jyotirmoy Chakma who extended all possible help in collecting related study materials. I owe much to him and wish him success. I also thank Mr. Adikanta Chakma, Mr. L. B. Chakma, Mr. Kuchal Chakma, Mr. Guna Chandra Chakma, Mr. Hriday Mangal Chakma and Mr. Bipin Bihari Chakna of Mizoram, Mr. Santosh Chakma, Mr. Subimal Chakma, Mr. Romoni Chakma and Mr. Arindam Dewan of Arunachal Pradesh and Mr. Sukra Chakma, my colleague from Tripura, for extending me valuable guidance during the field visit, necessary information and materials relevant to my study.

I am in particular thankful to my Principal, Dr. B. Vasalalruata, and Shri Lalthamuana Neihslial, my colleague, for their support without which it would not have been possible to complete the work in due time. I would also like to thank Indian Council of Social Science Research (North Eastern Regional Centre), Shillong for sanctioning me grant to do the much needed library work.

Mention may be made of my friends and colleagues who helped me to sustain motivation for the work undertaken. I am thankful to my friend Sanjay Deb who encouraged me continuously. I am equally grateful to Dr. Bhagirathi Biswas, who inspired me in many ways with her short stories from the Epics and Puranas and good advises. I am indebted to all my family members including my mother Smt. Jyotsna Paul, my wife Aparna, my sister Smt. Tapati
Paul, my brother-in-law, Shri Uttam Paul and particularly my father, Shri Sankar Kumar Paul, who freed me from all the responsibility of the family for giving me the space to carry out my study. In particular among the family members, I am greatly indebted to my daughter Deborna for not being able to spend much time with her as the research work demanded greater priority. I also would like to acknowledge the help extended by my maternal uncle Shri Sakha Dutta and cousin Shri Kamalesh Dutta for helping me during my visit to Arunachal Pradesh. I wish all of them happiness and good health for ever.

Last but not the least, I dedicate this work to the sufferings of all those Chakmas who are relentlessly struggling for freedom, citizenship and life in the places of their habitation and hope that this work stands as a milestone to their long cherished goal.

DEBASISH PAUL
