ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It gives me profound pleasure to express heartfelt gratitude and admiration to my esteemed supervisor, Prof. H.R. Pajni, Ph.D., F.R.E.S., F.E.S.I., Department of Zoology, Panjab University, Chandigarh; under whose able guidance this research work was planned and ultimately led to successful completion. His vast knowledge, constructive criticism and valuable suggestions have been vital for this work.

I am thankful to the Chairman, Department of Zoology, Panjab University, Chandigarh for providing the necessary laboratory facilities.

The financial assistance rendered by Haryana Council of Science and Technology is greatly acknowledged which enabled me to undertake the present investigation throughout the tenure as a Research Officer.

I wish to express my thanks to the concerned authorities at Forest Research Institute, Dehradun and Indian Agricultural Research Institute, Delhi for allowing me to consult their libraries and museums. I am grateful to Prof. M.L. Thakur, Forest Research Institute, Dehradun for conforming the identification of the termites.

My sincere thanks are due to Dr. P.K. Sen-Sarma, Dr. O.B. Chhotani, Dr. M.L. Thakur, Dr. K. Krishna and Dr. S.C. Verma who made available the reprints and photocopies of their publications.

The co-operation extended by a team of laboratory Assistants-cum-Field Assistants, Shri Bir Singh, Shri Satish Kumar, Shri Uttam Chand and Shri Vikram Singh (Driver) during laboratory and field observations is greatly appreciated.
My thanks are also due to the artist, Mr. Gian Chand and to M/s Kaizen Graphics for taking keen interest in giving the final shape to the manuscript.

I would like to express a sense of gratitude to my friends and colleagues, especially Dr. Anil Girdhar, Dr. Iqbal Singh and Dr. Seema Sood for their timely help and co-operation during the course of this work.

A special word of thanks for my friend, Dr. Sat Dev Batish, for the inspiration, encouragement, moral support and help extended during difficult times.

Finally, it was a feeling of constant care and support on the part of my family, especially my mother, whose motivation and inspiration enabled me to bring this work to successful completion. I feel highly indebted to her.
