ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Thus do your duty without attachment, Perform the work that has to be done;
Since the person attains supreme form, By doing duty in a spirit of sacrifice
(The Bhagavadgita Chap.III-Verse 19)

It gives me immense pleasure and contentment to acknowledge and thank all those who in many ways have contributed to this effort.

I consider myself lucky and privileged to be working under the guidance of my esteemed supervisor Dr. Ravi Bhushan Assistant Professor, Department of English, Bhagat Phool Singh Mahila Vishwavidyalaya, Khanpur Kalan (Sonipat) Haryana. I’m thankful for his valuable guidance and supervision. His thought-provoking discussions and suggestions always inspired me to work innovatively. It was his constant support, supervision, advice and kind co-operation which helped me to build an optimistic attitude towards my dissertation work.

I am grateful to the Vice Chancellor, the Director, Research and Development Centre, and the Department of English, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore for granting me permission to pursue my research from this university and providing the necessary research facilities.

I would also like to thank the Director, Higher Education, Panchkula (Haryana) for granting me permission to pursue in-service Ph.D. and helping me fulfill my dream.

Special thanks to the library staff of Haryana Agricultural University, Hisar, Guru Jambheshwar University, Hisar and Chaudhary Devi Lal University, Sirsa for their kind co-operation and timely help.

I would also like to thank all the ELT experts, teachers of English and students of various colleges for their constant help and co-operation at all stages of my work.
A word of thank to all the faculty members of the English and Foreign Languages University, Hyderabad, for showing me new perspectives of ELT during my PGCTE course.

This entire task would not have been possible without the blessings of my loving mother. I’m thankful for her good wishes and great sacrifice towards the pursuit of my research.

Family is the most important ingredient in the recipe of life and I consider myself lucky to have my life flavoured with my dear husband Dr. Rajvir Yadav, daughter Gargi, son Manu, all my family members and in-laws who have been very encouraging and supportive throughout my life. I’m thankful to them for providing me with a safe and secure environment.

Last but not the least; my efforts will remain incomplete if I fail to acknowledge the blessing of my late father without which it would not have been possible for me to complete this work.

My head bows to Almighty for giving me inner strength to face the ups and downs of life and seek His blessing for my future endeavors.
