ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

To the Almighty Allah (the most merciful) for giving me the power to believe in myself and to pursue my dreams. I would never have completed the present investigation without HIS faith and I wish to express my warmest thanks to HIM for letting me to complete this research work.

It is a matter of great satisfaction that the investigator finished this research work in due course of time with keen sense of duty and sincerity. But at this juncture, it is the pious duty to express my feelings of gratitude to those who have motivated, helped and co-operated me. I am enough fortunate to have an opportunity to work under the inspired guidance of my research supervisor and mentor Dr. Mohammad Iqbal Mattoo, (Associate Professor, Department of Education, K.U). Without his affectionate and constant encouragement, the present work could not have been possible. He taught me, both consciously and unconsciously, how a good research is carried out. His wide knowledge and logical way of thinking have been of great value to me. The investigator owes his contribution-time, ideas and suggestions - to make the present research experience as productive and stimulating. The joy and enthusiasm of my supervisor for the research was praiseworthy and motivational to me, even during the tough times in the Ph.D. pursuit. Thank you for your advice, guidance.

I would like to express my record full thanks to my esteemed and worthy teacher Prof. Mahmood Ahmad Khan, (Dean and Head, Faculty of Education, KU), for being the guiding light of inspiration to me during my academic requirements. I extend my deep sense of gratitude to him for his timely valuable advices.

With great pleasure I acknowledge my indebtedness and heartfelt thanks to my respected Faculty members of Department of Education K.U- Dr. Mohammad Yousf Ganie, Dr. Tasleema Jan, Dr. Aamina Parveen, Dr. Najmah Peerzada- for their guidance and kind cooperation whenever, it was required during the completion of the present research.

Thank must go to my colleagues and friends- Mr. Feroze Ahmad Koul, Mr. Javaid Ahmad Puju, Dr. Firdous Ahmad Sofal, Ms. Bilquees Aslam, Mr. Taufeeq Ahamad Akmali, Mr. Ashiq Ahmad Thakur, Dr. Syed Ishfaq and Mr. Rizwan Roomifor their step after step support in the completion of this research work. Without their positive attitude, the research journey would have seemed a lot lonelier and more insurmountable.

The investigator offers his heartfelt thanks to all his research mates- Akeel Ahmad Pandit, Kawsar Hafeez, Riyaz Ahmad Shah, Tariq Ahmad Wani, Gowher Ahmad Bhat, Dilruba Syed - for accompanying and making the present research journey an enjoyable, easy and memorable experience. My heartfelt appreciations must go Mr. Habibullah Shah (Assistant Professor Distance Education) for his timely help in the completion of this present research pursuit. The team of scholars (always present in my supervisors chamber)–Shahida Parveen, Mrs. Nazima, Irshd Ahmad Kumar, Moomin Jan, Hakeem Sayar Ahmad Shah, Saima Gazanfar, Hafeezullah Quarishi and Ab. Waheed Shah- are warmly acknowledged much beyond my vocabulary for their support and feedback during this research voyage.

I would also like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to Mr. Sunhair Quayoom and Mr. Parvaiz Amin Mir, who gave me strength to fulfill their earnest desire to do something special in the field of education.

I also feel highly indebted to my teachers, whose blessings have always been a source of inspiration to me. I express my appreciation to all the known and unknown persons and personalities, authors and authorities whose ideas, research work and actual quotations have been included in the present work.

Warm acknowledgement with appreciation is extended for the moral support provided by the staff members of the faculty - Mr. Mohammad Amin Dar, Dr. Shabir Ahmad, Dr. Gulshan Wani, Mr. Manzoor Ahmad, Dr. Kounsar, Ms. Asiya Maqbool, and Jameel Amin Mir- for their care and concern.

Additionally, I would like to thank Deans, Heads and Faculty members of various departments of University of Kashmir who permitted me to collect my research data from their respective departments. I also extend special thanks to all those participants who were the part of the investigation for their co-operation and response.

Sincere thanks are due to Library and non-teaching staff- Mr. M. Abbas, Mr. Fayaz Ahmad, Mr. Shabir Ahmad, Mr. Magray, Mr. Jan Shahib and Tanveera Jee for giving their sincere and warm cooperation throughout the course of study.
I owe my innumerable thanks to my loving parents and my family, especially my Dad and Mom, Syed Gh. Mohammad and Syed Aamina, who have always been a vessel of support and encouragement throughout my academic pursuits. I would like to thank my brother, Syed Murtaza for all his affection, patience and support. I am thankful for enduring love and support of my sister, Tabasum. Thank you for your support, encouragement and for always being confident in my abilities. I also extend heartfelt gratitude to my fiance, Aqsa Amin, for her unconditional encouragement, support, love, patience, and belief in me and my dreams. In addition to having faith in me, she has taught me to have faith in myself, for which I could not be more grateful. Thank you for all you have done to make my life easier as I worked through this research.

Finally, I would like to express my particular appreciation to Mr. Showket Ahmad (Computer Inn), who efficiently brought this thesis in its present printed form well in time.
