At the very outset, I owe my profound gratitude and gratefulness to my Guides Prof. Dr. N. N. Pandey and Prof. Dr. N. B. Biswas of Department of Education, Assam University, Silchar for their careful supervision of the work presented in this thesis. Without their constant guidance it would have not been possible to complete the thesis. I offer my deep sense of gratitude to them.

I am very much thankful to my husband Sri Bijan Burman Roy, Head of the Department of History, Radhamadhab College, Silchar for his constant inspiration, help and guidance during my research work. He has been the main source of inspiration to me till finalizing the style of this study. My thanks are also due to my son Biswaraj who always cherished to see the work is complete and helped me in many ways. I am also thankful to all the Principals, Teachers and students who have taken pains to respond to the Questionnaire Schedule served to them. In a research of this kind where secondary source is lacking, one has to depend heavily on information obtained from them.

I am also thankful to retired teachers, retired Principals and my colleagues in various colleges who have given me opportunity to interview them to obtain first hand information from their experience.
I am also grateful to the staff members of various colleges, Universities, government offices for their kind cooperation in furnishing the data required to my research.

My sincere thanks are also due to Smti. Maitreyee Deb for rendering help in computerizing the thesis within a very short period of time. Last but not least I wish to record my thanks to my colleagues particularly Mr. Monoj Paul of Deptt. Of Economics for helping me in drawing the graphs in the thesis and everyone who have offered their generous encouragement, suggestion and cooperation in the preparation of the thesis. I am thankful to all my well-wishers.
