ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my pleasant duty to express my gratitude to Dr. G. Shivarudrappa, M.A., M.Ed, Ph.D, Head, Department of Studies in Education for kindly permitting me to take this topic for investigation. Further I had the good fortune of having his valuable guidance throughout the work. His encouragement has contributed in great measure to the completion of the thesis. I thank Sri S. S. Krishna Rao, Retired Joint Director of Public Instruction, Belgaum Division for kindly according the departmental permission to take up the investigation. Principal Sri V. B. Gaonkar and Sri P. Obanaik, Ex. Principal of Government College of Education, Belgaum (now Deputy Director of Public Instruction, Bijapur District) have enabled me in many ways to pursue the work. I am very much indebted to them.

The officers of the department and of the University of Mysore and University of Karnataka have co-operated with me by returning the questionnaires and information inventory duly furnishing the information very much needed for statistical analysis. I thank them very much. Members of the public, retired officers have furnished their frank and considered opinion in the replies to the questionnaires and information inventory. I owe a debt of gratitude to them.

My friend Sri Y. R. Achyuta Rao, was a source of inspiration and I thank him for all the help he has rendered to me. My better half Srimati Manjula stood by my side encouraging me at all moments of despair and saw to the successful completion. My warmest thanks are due to her.

Most important help is the one I unstintingly got is from Sri P.G. Hiremath, Library, Government College of Education, Belgaum and the authorities of the library, University College of Education, Dharwand. They have given me books and journals whenever required for study.

( M.S. Srigiri Nath)
Professor of Education,
Government College of Education
