It is with great pleasure I present this thesis. Along with it I wish to express my appreciation and grateful thanks to a number of individuals for their co-operation, assistance and guidance at the various stages of this study.

Special thanks are due to the first grade college lecturers of Davangere and Haribar who actively participated in the educational experiment. I am grateful to Sri T.M. Vittala Rao, Lecturer in Education, M.M. College of Education, Davangere who extended full co-operation at the stage of evaluating the Bharwad Lecture Rating Scale in terms of validity and reliability.

My sincere thanks are also due to Prof. G.R. Lingappa, Principal, M.M. College of Education, Davangere, Principals of selected colleges, Research Scholars of the Department of Post-Graduate Studies in Education, Karnataka University, Dharwad and my colleague teacher educators who extended co-operation and assistance in conducting the study. I would like to take this opportunity to thank Sri Andaneppa Angadi of Guledgudd, Sri K. Basavaraj of Davangere, and Karnataka Veerashaiva Vishyabhirudhi Samsthe, Bangalore for financial support.

(ii)

I sincerely express my profound gratitude and deep sense of appreciation to Dr. G. M. Patil, Reader in Education, Department of Post-Graduate Studies in Education, Karnataka University, Dharwad for his valuable and untiring guidance, inspiring suggestions and kind co-operation throughout, in the successful completion of this research study. He encouraged me in moments of despair and patiently discussed with me every point of my research work.

PATTANSHETTI MALLIKARJUN MALLAPPAR

(iii)