ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This research was guided by Dr. A.E. Punit, Reader, Department of Sociology, Karnataka University Dharwad, to whom I express my deep sense of gratitude. He has been a source of continuous inspiration and constant encouragement to me in all my academic endeavours. My thanks are due to Prof. K. Chandrasekhariah, Head, Department of Sociology, Karnataka University Dharwad, for his co-operation and insightful suggestions. I am thankful to all my colleagues in the department for their help and support. I must record my gratefulness to Dr. C.D. Daulatabad, Prof. P.S. Mundinamani, Prof. S.R. Narappanavar, Prof. P.S. Halyal for their encouragement. I am also thankful to Prof. K.S. Daniel and Prof. C.R. Karisiddappa for the pains they took in going through the manuscript and in preparing bibliography. Shri B.S. Harihar, Dr. M. Sivamurthy, Dr. V.V. Muddapur and Prof. S.H. Kunchur have helped me in processing the data and I am grateful to them. I am also thankful to Prof. A.E. Goudar, Prof. F.V. Yavagal, Prof. V.C. Mogali, Shri V.G. Urankar and Shri M.A. Agasimani for the help they extended to me during the field work and collection of information. The assistance rendered by many of my students is thankfully acknowledged. I will fail in my duty if I do not record my gratitude to all the respondents for their overwhelming co-operation. and hospitality. I must record my feelings of appreciation for my parents from whom I have always received invaluable encouragement. I must also remember my wife and children for their love and sacrifice which helped me in completing this work. Lastly my thanks are due to Shri S.B. Pawar, who typed the manuscript with utmost care.
