ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my great pleasure in recalling the help received from various sources for enabling me to complete this research work commenced in July, 1983.

I express my deepest gratitude to Dr. N. M. Bujurke, my research supervisor, for initiating me into research and I should acknowledge without whose academic advice and guidance I would not have carried out my investigations to a completion as embodied in my thesis. Indeed, he was a source of constant inspiration during the period of my work. For his constant help, untiring guidance, and it is with a sense of deep respect that I place on record my profound thankfulness to him.

I gratefully acknowledge the help and encouragement extended by my co-guide Dr. B. G. Mulimani, throughout the course of this work.

I owe my gratitude to Dr. P. S. Hiremath for his invaluable help and personal interest at all stages of my work through his keen observation and frank discussion of thought.

I wish to thank Prof. S. R. Malaghan, Chairman, and Prof. S. M. Sarangi, former Chairman Department of Mathematics, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for providing the facilities and helping in every other way. My sincere thanks are due to all the members of the staff of the Department of Mathematics, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for their valuable help and encouragement.

I sincerely thank my research colleagues and specially Mr. H. P. Patil, Mr. N. B. Naduvinmani, Mr. Krishnamurthy and Mr. P. M. Patil, U. G. C., F. I. P. Research Scholar for their kind Co-operation.

I remember with great reverence the blessings of venerable Sri D. Veerendra Hegade, Dharmadhikari of Shrikshetra Dharmasthala and President, S. D. M. E. Society, Ujire, without which I wouldn't have been what I am to-day.

I am grateful to Sriman N. Vajrakumar, Secretary, J. S. S., Dharwad, for his affection and encouragement providing me to undertake higher studies. I am also thankful to the members of the executive committee. of the society for their whole hearted support in my academic persuit.

I am grateful to my Principal Prof. G. Purushotham and Prof. B.V. Krishnamurthy former Principal, S.D.M. College of Engg. & Tech. Dharwad, for their encouragement and help. Without their constant cooperation this work would not have been completed successfully. I thank all the colleagues in my Department and also all the Staff Members of S.D.M. College of Engg. & Tech. Dharwad for their kind co-operation.

It is difficult to recall the individual names of relatives, fellow teachers and friends who were of immense help in one way or the other. I take pleasure to acknowledge gratefully all of them.

Finally, a special word of thanks and appreciation is due to Sri. G.S. Ramdurg who spared no pains in typing this thesis to my satisfaction and also my thanks to Sri. Ravishankar. Bhooplapur, Prop. Jyoti-Printers, Dharwad-1, for the nice get up of the thesis.
