ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. K. Raghaendra Rao, M.A., Ph.D. (Toronto), Dip-in-Anthropology, Reader in Political Science, Karnataka University, Dharwad, under whose able guidance the study was taken up and completed. He has been a great source of inspiration throughout the study. But for his constant counselling and encouragement it would not have been possible for me to complete this study. Besides devoting his valuable time for giving me guidance, he also willingly placed at my disposal the volume of unpublished primary source material so arduously collected by him from various Dailies in Kannada and English, which was so indispensable to my work. My obligation to him is beyond the scope of a formal acknowledgement. I thank him sincerely for all his help.

I also desire to place on record my thanks to the authorities of the University Grants Commission and Karnataka University, Dharwad for granting me an U.G.C. Junior Fellowship which enabled me to undertake and complete this study.
I am thankful to the staff of the Karnatak University Library for their ready co-operation; to Shri S.G. Kadaramandalgi of the Geography Department, Karnataka University, for the maps and to Shri O.S. Byadgi for typing.

Last but not in any way the least, I am thankful to my husband and parents for their encouragement and help, and to my children Santosh and Suman for allowing me to do this work.
