ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

During the course of my research work, I have been helped in many respects by many persons and agencies. Among those I am deeply indebted to:

Dr. K.G. Gurumurthy, who provided me an opportunity to work for doctoral degree and helped me by giving valuable guidance throughout my studies.

The executive staff of the Karnataka Kurubara Sangha, Bangalore and its district and taluk level branches for their generous help given to me at all stages of my work.

My special thanks go to Shri. Muni Sanjeevaiah, President, Kurubara Sangha, Bangalore and Shri. Siddappa, Secretary for their valuable help.

The Kuruba community of Lokikere village, the Village Panchayat Officials and teachers of the schools there for their co-operation and support given to me during my stay in the village.

The staff and research students of the Department of Anthropology, Karnataka University, Dharwad for their help and encouragement given to me during my stay in the department.

The Librarians of Karnataka University and Mysore University Libraries and their staff for their excellent facilities given to me.

My parents, brothers, relatives and friends for their encouragement and financial assistance provided to me throughout my research work.

Department of Anthropology, Karnataka University, Dharwad - 580003
March 28th, 1983

K.H. Basavarajappa
(K.H. BASAVARAJAPPA)