ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The investigator places on record his profound gratitude to Dr. A.C. Deve Gowda, under whose supervision this research was accomplished. His inestimable guidance, constructive suggestions and sustained inspiration have been a great source of strength in the completion of this study.

The researcher is highly indebted to his teacher, Dr. G. Shivarudrappa, Dean Faculty of Education, Karnataka University, who enkindled in him the passion for research and rekindled it whenever it appeared to fade, with his ever-abiding persuasion.

The author is extremely grateful to the Government of Andhra Pradesh for according him the permission to undertake research; to the Chairman and Members of the Andhra Pradesh Public Service Commission who made available to him the necessary records of the Commission; and to the functionaries of the Commission for supplying the required data.

The investigator gratefully acknowledges the valuable suggestions given and help rendered by Dr. S. Parmaji and Dr. S. Sreedhara Swamy in completing this venture.

The researcher expresses his appreciation for the devotion and dedication with which Sri G. Suryanarayana, his P.A., assisted him at every stage of this research work; to Sri J. Vidyasegar for the help rendered in statistical analysis; to Sri S. Kumara Swamy for typing the final draft and to Sri M.N. Lingam and Sri T.R. Narsing Rao for comparing the final draft.

The author expresses his thanks to his wife Smt. T.N. Sada Lakshmi and to his children, but for whose cooperation this research could not have seen the light of the day.

T.V. NARAYANA