APPENDIX - II

List of sentences presented to the speakers
List of sentences presented to the speakers

1. Please present your case.
2. He conducted himself nicely at the meeting.
3. Our sales should not decrease.
4. He is trying to increase his wealth.
5. Do not desert your friend.
6. I refuse to do that.
7. Do not subject him to torture.
8. We should produce more food.
9. He did not progress well.
10. Combine the jumbled words into a meaningful sentence.
11. I saw a bear in the forest.
12. My fear is that he will disclose the plan.
13. Steel can stand wear and tear for long.
14. A tear or two are sufficient to win her over.
15. He is contented with his lot.
16. He is busy at present.
17. Our sales have shown a decrease.
18. The Sahara is the largest desert.
19. The increase in production is encouraging.
20. This street has become a refuse dump.
21. What is the subject of his speech?
22. Agricultural produce is stored in these buildings.
23. His progress was slow.
24. A new harvester combine has been recently produced.
25. His conduct was good.
26 I cannot bear all this.
27 I do not fear him.
28 I cannot wear nylon clothes.
29 Do not tear off any page.
30 What are the contents of this letter?