ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The thought of doing doctoral study in mass media has been in my mind while I was pursuing my study in Masters in Mass Communication in 2003. Over time that thought turned into a dream. My teacher Prof. (Dr.) G. P. Pandey's encouragement turned that dream into an obsession, and his guidance helped me to turn this dream into reality. I was extremely fortunate enough to get him as my supervisor.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. (Dr.) G. P. Pandey for his able guidance without which the study would not have been possible.

Prof. (Dr.) G. P. Pandey, with his vast experiences, his deep insight into social research, virtually thrashed out all incongruence and guided the study to right track. His enlightened criticism and openness made me confident to delve deep into the topic in which no academic work has been undertaken in the state. My best regards for him.

Reports of experts on my research proposal were confidence boosters for me while some of their observation helped me a lot. Among them, Prof. Gopalji Mishra, Dr. V. P. Singh and others deserves special mention.

As the present work is an empirical one and, mainly based on field work of the study areas, I owe my gratitude to the localites of Guwahati city and residents of those areas.

My friends were extremely helpful throughout the study. I convey my special thanks to them.

I do not know if it is possible to dedicate a thesis to any one. But if it is, then I would like to dedicate this study to those who are my strength and constant inspiration. Last but not the least, my special gratitude to my family members and relatives who has been connected with this study and extended help at every stage.
