ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

It was a great happiness for the research scholar to thank publicly some of those who helped in this research. Several years ago research scholar had thought about doing a PhD, although nothing tangible had come out then. Research scholar’s greatest debt by far was to the supervisor Dr. Sunita Roy of Department of PMIR, Patna University, she encouraged generously throughout. Research scholar was further grateful to her for making work harder and to better effect.

Research scholar would like to express heartiest gratitude towards Professor Prabhakar Jha, Dr. Geeta Sinha and all present and past teachers, students and staff of PMIR (Formerly Labour and Social Welfare). Research scholar would further highly appreciate ICSSR, New Delhi for sanctioning a Doctoral Fellowship- Contingency Grant.

Research scholar wanted to express profound reverence for parents, wife, children and friends who visibly or invisibly provided moral assistance and motivation.

Finally, research scholar also wanted to express longing gratitude towards god; without his grace and refinement nothing happened!
