ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deepest and sincere gratitude to my mentor, my respected supervisor, Professor G. Ram, Department of Sociology, Assam University, Silchar, for his honest guidance, constant inspiration, encouragement and valuable advice that has immensely flown in completing this work.

I also express my heartfelt and profound sense of gratitude to my co-supervisor Prof. Gopalji Mishra, Department of Social Work, Assam University, Silchar, for his valuable suggestions that largely contributed in the execution of this work.

I am thankful to Prof. B.K. Behera, Head, Department of Sociology, Assam University Silchar, for his kind support and to all the teaching and non-teaching staff of the department, namely, Ajoy Roy and Ranjit Nunia, for their cooperation and support extended during the course of the work.

I am also thankful to my respondents who spared their valuable time in course of this study and shared with me their confidential information, without which I could have never been able to see the thesis in present form. I also express my thanks to Mrs. Mina Das, her mother and sister, Subhas Roy, Rekha Das, Geeta Das, Mr. Shuklabaidya who helped me in establishing rapport with the families of child labourers. I am indebted to Shri Kishore Bhattacharjee and Nur Ahmed Laskar for their cooperation and help for establishing rapport with the employers. I am also thankful to Labour Inspectors, Alimuddin Barbhuiya and Debasish Bhattacharjee who helped me to get official data on child labour in Silchar town. I extend my thanks to Sr. Pushpa, Shri Sudipta Bijoy Dutta Choudhury, Lal Mia Laskar, Mr. Amal Das, Mrs. Madhumita Roy, Suchandan Biswas, Rajib Chakraborty for their generous help and support.

I also express my thanks to Shri Pinak Pani Nath Purkayastha who took pains in typing some parts of my work at its very initial stage.
I convey my heartiest thanks to my guardian angel Sr. Shwetha, Vice Principal of Holy Cross School, Silchar, and my friend and Ph. D batch mate, Joydeep Goswami, for the support and encouragement which I received from them during the course of this work. I am also thankful to my Ph. D batch mates- Ayesha Afsana, Swapnali Goswami, Tapan Saikia and Mrs. Kankana Nath- and other research scholar friends- Panmei Gungapou Rongmei, Kanchan Gogoi, Chakradhari Saha, Amal Kanti Acharyya, Mrs. Mrinalini Sinha, Monoj Kumar Singh and Bidyut Deb Choudhury for their cooperation and help.

I acknowledge the cooperation of the library staff of Assam University, Silchar, during the collection of secondary data for the research work.

My special thanks to Mr. Sandip Choudhury and Mrs. Radha Choudhury from S-Cube, Vijendra Jain from Abhishek Printers for rendering their services in setting, formatting, printing and binding the thesis.

At last, I can’t be oblivious of my indebtedness to my parents, my sisters, my brother-in-law and my mejo mama- Sri Mahindra Nath Bhattacharjee- for their inspiration and emotional support throughout the work.
