CONTENTS

Preface
Acknowledgement
List of Tables

CHAPTER

ONE: INTRODUCTION

Part - I
a) Review of literature on Widowhood 1 - 106
b) Trend of Widowhood in India 106 - 130

Part - II
1.1 About the Study 131 - 133
1.2 The Problem 133 - 135
1.3 Scope and Objectives 135 - 138
1.4 Methods and Procedure 138 - 145
1.5 Frame work of Analysis 146 - 150
1.6 Theoretical Support 151 - 169

CHAPTER

TWO: THE SAMPLE

2.1 The Setting 170 - 185
2.2 Demographic Characteristics 186 - 190
2.3 Socio-economic Characteristics 190 - 194
2.4 Type of employment and reactions 194 - 202
2.5 Accommodation and Living arrangement 202 - 207
2.6 Reactions toward Marriage and Marital life 207 - 212
CHAPTER

THREE: FAMILY BACKGROUND

3.1 Socio-economic Characteristics of the deceased husbands 213 - 223
3.2 Property left by the deceased husbands 223 - 228
3.3 Details about the children 228 - 237
3.4 Problems faced by the widows in their upbringing 237 - 249

CHAPTER

FOUR: DEPRIVATION

4.1 Economic deprivation 250 - 263
4.2 Social deprivation 264 - 279
4.3 Emotional deprivation 279 - 296
4.4 Cultural deprivation 296 - 321

CHAPTER

FIVE: REACTIONS AND VIEWS

5.1 Reactions towards Widowhood and death 328 - 334
5.2 Views on the Status of Hindu Widows and Suggestions for the improvement of their condition 334 - 340
5.3 Views on Widow Re-marriage 340 - 355
5.4 Type of family preferred 355 - 358
5.5 Future plans 358 - 364
5.6 Suggestions for the welfare of the widows 364 - 368

CHAPTER

SIX: CONCLUSION

Summary 369 - 379
Recomendations  379
Areas of future Research  380 - 381
Major findings  382

APPENDICES

A Glossary  383 - 388
B Centres Visited  389

BIBLIOGRAPHY  390 - 412