ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

With a deep sense of gratitude and ever lasting indebtedness, I wish to express my deepest appreciation to my esteemed teacher and guide Dr. Anil G. Mudbidri, under whose guidance the present study is undertaken. This study could not have been completed without his excellent advice and sincere criticism at every stage of my research work.

I gratefully acknowledge the co-operation of all my respondents who are the main source of the field data for this study. They responded well and co-operated throughout my field work.

I am grateful to the Karnatak University for providing me with the financial assistance. I also wish to thank the ICSSR Western Regional Centre for the sanction of study grants.

My sincere thanks are due to Prof. H.V. Nagesh and Katti A.R. for their unreserved help in framing the questionnaire.

I am especially thankful to Dr. Vignesh N. Bhat, Chairman, Department of Sociology, Kuvempu University, Shimoga, Dr. Prabha Mahale, Dept. of Anthropology, Karnataka University, Dharwad and Smt. Nandita A. Mudbidri for their constructive criticisms on the first draft of this thesis and for their suggestions and encouragement.

I am thankful to Mr. Harihar, Computer Section, Karnatak University, Dharwad and Mr. Surendra, Statistician, Agriculture University, Dharwad, who were extremely helpful in data analysis.
I am extremely thankful to the Librarian Mr. R.C. Patil and his staff, Karnatak University for their excellent co-operation.

My sincere thanks are due to Mr. K. Shashidhar Kini for his meticulous typing work.

Finally, I wish to acknowledge an everlasting debt of gratitude to my loving parents, brothers and sister for their interest and constant encouragement in all my academic endeavours.

Ms. GODAVARI D. PATIL.
