LIST OF TABLES

1.1 Prevalence of Widowhood in India and Karnataka.

1.2 Age and Sex Specific Prevalence of Widowhood in India.

1.3 Age Specific death rates by Sex in India.

1.4 Percentage of Widowed Population in each age-group.

1.5 Percentage of Widowhood and Widowered by rural and urban status for India.

1.6 Pattern of Widowhood by religion in India.

1.7 Percentage of Widows and ever Married women by age and education level.

1.8 Mean Age at widowhood by residential status for India, 1981.

1.9 Mean age at Widowhood of those getting widowhood by age 45 India and Karnataka.

1.10.a. Percentage of Widowed females for India and Karnataka.

1.10.b. Percentage of Widowed females by residential Status for India & Karnataka.

1.11. Percentage of Widowhood total Population and ever married Population in Karnataka by district.

1.13.b. Percentage distribution of working widows and currently married women by industrial divisions Karnataka State.

1,2.1 Population and percentage variation for Dharwad.

2.2 Distribution of Population in Dharwad city by sex and number of females per 1000 males.

2.3 State and District wise distribution of population by religion, 1981.

2.4 Caste-wise population of Karnataka State, Dharwad and Dharwad city.
2.5 Literacy rate of Dharwad city and Dharwad District.

2.6 Percentage Distribution of Population in Dharwad city by age 1987.

II. 2.1 Distribution of widows by Age at present, Marriage and Widowhood.

2.2 Distribution of Widows by Duration of Married life, widowhood and age-gap between spouses.

2.3 Distribution of widows by place of origin.

2.4 Distribution of widows by mother-tongue.

2.5 Distribution of widows by caste.

2.6 Educational level of widows.

2.7 Distribution of widows by occupational status.

2.8 Persons helped widows in getting Jobs/work.

2.9 reasons for facing problems in getting Job/work.

2.10.a. Distribution of widows by Job-satisfaction.

2.10.b. Reasons for satisfaction.

2.10.c. Reasons for dissatisfaction.

2.11. Distribution of widows by type of accommodation.

2.12. Distribution of widows by Income.

2.12. Distribution of widows by living arrangements.

2.13. Distribution of widows by type of accommodation.

2.15. Distribution of widows by Family size.

2.16 Persons who made the selection of partners respondent's spouse.

2.18. Distribution of widows by marital satisfaction.

3.1 Distribution of deceased husbands by age at death.
3.2 Distribution of deceased husbands by causes of death.
3.3 Distribution of deceased husbands by treatment taken.
3.4 Reasons for not receiving treatment.
3.5 Distribution of deceased husbands by educational level.
3.6 Distribution of deceased husbands by occupation status.
3.7 Distribution of deceased husbands by income.
3.8 Savings left by the deceased husbands.
3.9 Property left by the deceased husbands.
3.10 Distribution of widows' children by age.
3.11 Distribution of widows' children by educational level.
3.12 Discontinuation of education by children.
3.13 Distribution of children by marital status.
3.14 Distribution of children by occupational status.
3.15 Distribution of children by income.
3.16 Persons taking care of the children.
3.17 Persons from whom children seek advice.
3.18(a) Children seeking advice from the widows.
3.18(b) Distribution of widows by difficulties faced in controlling children.
3.19(a) Changes in children's activities.
3.19(b) Instances of changes in children's activities.
3.20 Reasons for changes in children's activities.
3.21 Decision-making by widows.
4.1 Economic deprivation faced by widows.
4.2 Efforts made to overcome the problem.
4.3 Debt taken by widows.
4.4 Expenses found most difficult to meet.
4.5 Widows receiving widow pension.
4.6 Social deprivation faced by widows.
4.7 Frequency of kinsmen's visits and widows visits
4.8 (a) Frequency of visits between widows and friends before widowhood.
4.8 (b) Frequency of visits between widows and friends after widowhood.
4.8 (c) Change noticed in friends.
4.9 Emotional deprivation faced by widows.
4.10 Reasons for emotional deprivation.
4.11 (a) Health Status of widows.
4.11 (b) Sufferings faced by widows.
4.12 Instances of humiliation.
4.13 Persons quarreled with widows.
4.14 Reasons for "why widows should not live?".
4.15 Persons with whom widows talk.
4.16 Insecurity felt by widows.
4.17 Occasions on which widows remember their husbands.
4.18 Cultural deprivation faced by widows.
4.19 Reasons for observing religious practices.
4.20 (a) Changes observed in food habits.
4.20 (b) Reasons for the change.
4.21 (a) Changes observed in dressing.
4.21 (b) Reasons for the change.
4.21 (c) Saubhagya signs used.
4.22 Reasons for not using ornaments.
4.23 (a) & (b) Religious functions attended.
4.23 (c) & (d) Socio-religious functions attended.
4.24 Reactions toward invitation
4.25 (a) Practices observed due to widowhood.
4.25 (b) Practices observed against taboos of widowhood.
5.1 Persons who helped widows and kind of help received
5.2 Persons to share widows responsibilities and persons approached
5.3 Persons shared household works and taking care of widows.
5.4 Reaction towards the death of husbands and time taken to get over the grief.
5.5 Feeling of loss and frequency.
5.6 Persons blamed widows for the death of husbands and factors responsible for widowhood.
5.7 Status of widows in Hindu Society and factors responsible for inferior status.
5.8 Factors that help widows' cause most and suggestions for improving widows' economic status.
5.9 Reaction of youths towards widows.
5.10 Approval of widows' marriage and frequency of its occurrence.
5.11 Knowledge about widow marriage.
5.12 Attitudes toward remarriage and the ideal gap between widowhood and remarriage.
5.13 A widow who can marry
5.14 A widow who cannot marry.
5.15 Attitudes toward married widows and living alone.
5.16 Reasons for unwillingness/willingness to remarry
5.17 Difficulties foreseen in remarriage and knowledge about 1856 Act.
5.18 Type of family prefaced
5.19 Reasons for liking Joint family and for liking to live independently.
5.20 Plans for own future life and for children.
5.21 Wishing to be self supporting and reason for favourable and unfavourable attitudes.
5.22 Kind of Job liked and help needed in getting the same.
5.23 Suggestion for the welfare of widows.
5.24 Expectations of widows from others.