ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

During the course of my research work I have been helped in many respects by many persons and agencies. Among these I am deeply indebted to:

Dr. K.G. Gurumurthy, Department of Anthropology, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for accepting me as his research student, suggesting me this interesting topic and later for guiding me at all stages of my research work;

Shri N.P. Desai, Ex-Administrator, Tibetan Refugees Rehabilitation Scheme II, Hubli and his staff; Sri. Kesang Yarphel, Representative of H.H. the Dalai Lama, and his office staff at Mundgod, for their help and encouragement;

the village leaders, villagers, Lamas and youths of the different Tibetan villages at the Mundgod Settlement for their cooperation in doing field work;

the Vice-Principal and staff members of the Central School for Tibetans, Mundgod Settlement, Doctor and his staff of the Mundgod Tibetan Refugee Hospital, the managers and their staff of the Syndicate Bank and Kanara.
District Co-operative Credit Bank Ltd., Tattihalli,
Secretary and his staff of the Tibetan Co-operative Society, Officials of the Agriculture, Revenue, Police,
Health and Forest Departments, Government of Karnataka, at Kundgod and Tattihalli, for their help in collecting the data;

the staff and students of Department of anthropology, Karnataka University, Hubballi for their help
and encouragement during my research work;

the Librarian and his staff, Karnataka University Library, Hubballi for providing me all the facilities and also getting me a few rare books on loan basis from other
libraries;

the Ministry of Supply and Rehabilitation, Government of India, New Delhi for giving us the necessary permission to do fieldwork in the Kundgod Settlement and;

my parents who not only financed the first part of my research work but also encouraged me throughout my study.

Department of Anthropology,
Karnataka University,
Hubballi - 580 003
August 30, 1976