ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is a great pleasure for me to place on record my indebtedness to various individuals and institutions from whom I have derived help in pursuing and completing this thesis.

I express my sincere thanks to my research guide Dr. Anil Mudbidri, Professor and Chairman, Department of Post Graduate Studies in Sociology, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for his valuable guidance throughout the course of my Doctoral study. This research could not have been completed without his excellent advice and sincere criticism at every stage of my doctoral study. I do not have sufficient words to express my deep gratitude to him. I can only say that I owe a great debt of gratitude, reverence and thankfulness to him.

I have no words sufficient to express my sincere feelings of gratitude to my father, mother, sisters, Uma G. Gadad, Smt. Neela B. Kannur and Smt. Nirmala Pattanshetty, Shankar Pattanshetty, Mahantesh, Prema, and other relatives, who gave their constant encouragement and support throughout the period of my study.
I am grateful to all my respondents who are the main source of the primary data collected by me. These respondents, inspite of their busy schedule and engagements which the small scale business demands, showed a keen interest and co-operated with the researcher in every way.

I am grateful to the Karnataka University, Dharwad., and University Grants Commission, New Delhi for providing me with the University Research Studentship and Junior Research Fellowship during my doctoral study.

I am especially thankful to Professor B.H.Amati, H.V. Nagesh, and Dr. K.M. Gouder, Sri. Kashappagouder and Dr. S.S.Kadi for their continuous encouragement and support.

I am also thankful to Sri. R.L.Patil and Dr. Mari Bhat of Economic Research Centre, Dharwad, who helped me immensely in computer processing and analysis of data.

I am extremely thankful to the library staff of Karnataka University, the University of Bombay and University of Delhi. I am also thankful to the librarians of Institute of Social and Economic Change, Bangalore University, Osmania University, Hyderabad and National Social Science Documentation Centre, New Delhi, for the co-operation they extended during reference work.

My sincere thanks are due to my friends, Sanjaya Bagali, Gangadhar Mulgund, Hurali, Hallikeri, Vijaykumar, Bhat, Yamnur, Halangali, Harish and Raju Bijapur, They have encouraged me in completing this research.
