ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is with great pleasure I present this thesis. Along with it I sincerely express my profound gratitude and deep sense of appreciation to my guide Dr. K. Ramachandrachar, Reader, Department of Studies in Education, Karnatak University, Dharwad, for his valuable and untiring guidance and also for his inspiring suggestions throughout enabling me to give shape to my research work and complete this thesis.

I am greatly indebted to my parents, husband and my young ones whose sacrifice and co-operation had a major role to play in my sustained pursuit.

I am grateful to the librarians of Bombay University, TATA Institute of Social Science Bombay, Osmania University, American Studies Research Centre Hyderabad, National Institute of Rural Development Hyderabad, Bangalore University, Baroda University and Centre for Advanced Studies in Education Baroda, for permitting me to avail their library facilities profusely.

My sincere thanks are due to the Headmasters of St Joseph's Convent, Dharwad, Basel Mission High School, Hubli, St Mary's High School, Hubli, and Headmistress of Sacred Heart convent School, Hubli, for having permitted me to conduct this experimental study in their schools.

I also owe my thanks to Prof. U. A. Katre, Shri Jayant Desai and his assistants who made word processing services available giving the present shape to this thesis with fine finishing.

Shailaja S Ambli