ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

An acknowledgement appears in the beginning of a thesis or a book, but it is always written last; perhaps the reason is that one has to count the help of the typist, binder and many others in the successful completion of this piece of work.

This thesis is on a very micro subject and it tries to probe deep into it. This task was made easy by Dr. S.F. Pujar, my guide, who gave me enough free hand and provided timely suggestions and advise, wherever necessary. Working with him was a mission. Many of the things I have learnt from him during my research work, period which go beyond the pages of this thesis. A plain 'thanks' may not do any justice. I shall always be grateful to him.

I am very much indebted to our revered Vice-Chancellor Dr. S. Ramegowda, Karnataka University, Dharwad for his kind help and blessings which have enabled me to submit my thesis. Hence my profound thanks to this great
I thank profusely our respected Registrar Shri B.P. Kanirama, Karnataka University, Dharwad for encouraging me in my academic activities.

Prof. T.S. Patil, Dr. Anban gave some important suggestions. My sitting with them have given me assets for my future. I shall always remember the help rendered by them.

I am much beholden to Dr. G.S. Bidarkoppa, Professor in Social Work and Dr. N.A. Ganihar, Reader in Social Work Karnataka University, Dharwad. They not only provided me the original impetus for the study, but also gave utmost encouragement during the conduct and completion of this thesis.

Dr. A.E. Punit, Dr. V.C. Chavadi, Dr. K.S. Daniel, Dr. V.T. Patil, Dr. Vasant Raichur, Dr. T.R. Goudar, Prof. Y.M. Madar, Dr. M.T. Kamble, Dr. Manohar Yadav, Prof. V.B. Kattimani, Dr. Bhadrapur, Dr. Shrishail Biradar, Dr. B.P. Patil, Shri T.F.
Nagalavi, Shri. Chandrakant Hosamani, Shri. M.M. Gaikewad, Dr. Murahari Naik, Prof. (Mrs) V.B. Pai, Dr. (Miss) Y.J. Shobha- devi, and Prof. S.Y. Swadi, Dr. B.S. Gunjal, Shri. R.V. Vadavi, Mrs. S.A. Raikar, Mrs. S.B. Jagatap and Shri Garag have had their significant role in the making of this thesis. They have all listened to me patiently and offered suggestions. This piece of work has passed through their transparent support.

I do express my profound and sincere thanks to Baburao, Divisional Controller, K.S.R.T.C. Divisional Office Kolar, Karnataka and thanks to Staff and Workmen of the K.S.R.T.C. Divisional Workshop, Kolar, for their kind co-operation and timely suggestions.

I am very much grateful to my brothers Shri. Sadashiv, Shri. Ishwar, Shri. Nagappa, Shri. Subhas Shri. Prabhu for their encouragement, emotional support, financial assistance and co-operation to pursue my studies.
I also owe a debt of gratitude to the librarians of Karnatak University, Dharwad for their kind co-operation in collecting the required literatures.

I am also grateful to Mrs. P.T. Patil, and Mrs. R.S. Pujar for taking care of me in preparing this thesis.

I thank Shri. M.G. Desai who has typed this thesis and Shri. R. Nagesh who has helped in preparing charts with utmost care and neatness. My thanks are also due to Shri. Kumbar for his timely help in nice binding work.

CHIDANAND D. SARIKAR