ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the culmination of this thesis, it is time to remember and acknowledge the contributions of the many persons who have had a share in this endeavour. A simple 'thank you' assumes a profound significance as I recall their support.

I express my deep and sincere gratitude to Professor G.S. Bidarakoppa, my guide for his invaluable guidance at every stage of the thesis. His patient, approachable and flexible nature built the base for fruitful academic discussions and learning. His constructive evaluations often set the tone for refinement of the quality of my work and enabled the completion of the thesis.

My sincere thanks are due to the Chairman and Staff, Department of Social Work, Karnataka University, Dharwad for their help in various stages of my work.

To the Management of Stella Maris College and the Principal, Dr. Sr. Annamma Philip, I owe heartfelt thanks for their generosity, encouragement and support throughout my study. I acknowledge the permission granted to do the study at Kasimedu, the field area of Sangamam. A special thanks to Sr. Christine Antony, former Director, Sangamam for her steadfast affection, generosity and prayers.

I sincerely thank the Secretary and Head of the Department of Social Work, Dr. Sr. Colleen North for so readily helping me whenever I approached her. I remember Dr. Mrs. Mary John, former Head of the Department, for her constant encouragement during my data collection. The co-operation and support of all my colleagues in the Department has helped me immensely, I am grateful to them. A warm thank you Sandy for giving a patient ear to all my varied experiences. I also acknowledge the kind enquiries of the staff of the college.
For facilitating the review of literature by permitting me to use the library I thank Mrs. Shanthi Ranganathan, Director, the staff of TTK and the Director, NIMHANS. I also thank The Director, Narcotic Control Bureau and the Department of Fisheries, Government of Tamilnadu for the help rendered.

The staff of Sangamam, past and present have been supportive during my data collection, I'm grateful to them. A special thanks to Philip for helping me search out the subjects of the study and their families. Thanks are also due to Muthu, Jayanthi and others for their help. I thank Fr. Desmond Daniels, Dr. Suresh Kumar and their team for enriching my knowledge on substance abuse.

I owe a special thanks to every respondent and their family members for their willing participation, for giving their time and revealing very personal and familial details, enabling me to share their joys and pains.

A very warm thank you to my friends and relatives who have also shared my concerns and wished me well. To Jessy for typing the manuscripts, whenever I needed it. I thank all the professionals who helped with the analysis and system management of my thesis.

I remember my family members, especially my parents who tried to fathom my highs and lows, who were always there and willing to help in any way possible and without whose support this thesis would not have been possible. I am thankful to my sister Anita and Paul for pitching in and helping whenever I needed it. Denis and Mary, Jacinta and Andy for their affection, concern and support during my thesis. Rita has been such a solid support in so many ways - thank you very much.
