ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the very outset, I am thankful to the informants, who at the informal as well as the formal level responded patiently to my queries and took me into confidence while telling me all about the community, though I am one of the speakers of this speech community. By and large, they were very co-operative with me. Without their affectionate consideration and co-operation I could neither have begun nor completed my research satisfactorily.

I wish to place on record my sincere gratitude to my teacher and guide Dr. William Madtha. His valuable suggestions, help, encouragement and able guidance which were profusely given time after time helped me in bringing out this Thesis in the present form.

I have no words to thank, appreciate and admire the patience and diligence of Dr. K. Anban, Lecturer in Linguistics, and Dr. Panneerselvam, Reader in Tamil, who even at odd times, willingly went through my written materials again and again, not only to correct the mistakes but also to improve upon the language and the construction of sentences. I am grateful to them. I also offer my sincere thanks to my esteemed teachers Dr. A. Murigeppa, Reader in Linguistics and Dr. H.M. Maheshwaraih, Reader in Kannada for their timely help. Dr. H.K. Pawar, Guruprasad Karadi, M. Krishnamurthy, Prof. Satish Gawati, Dr. M.V. Naik, Prof. D.R. Albal and A.G. Deviprasad have helped me in diverse ways. I am very much thankful to them.
I am very much grateful to Smt. Rajamma Nayak, Smt. Radha Nayak and Smt. Geeta Kudari, Language Laboratory Assistant, for co-operating with me in checking the data of my own speech in the earlier stages of my research.

I am also happy to record my sense of gratitude to the Librarians of the Institute of Kannada Studies namely Shri Suresh K. Betageri and Miss Neelima Anthony for providing me the required books and theses whenever needed.

At home, I owe my heartfelt gratitude to my parents, brothers, sisters and brothers-in-law and sister-in-law. Without their constant help, love, trust, affection, admiration, endearment and encouragement, this work would not have been completed. Their moral support has enriched my present work.

I do feel indebted to Dr. S. G. Imrapur, Chairman and other staff members of the Institute of Kannada Studies for their timely help. Many more friends and colleagues - though not mentioned by name here - deserve to be thanked for their direct and indirect contributions in completing the research.
LINGUISTIC ATLAS OF UTTAR KANNADA DISTRICT.