ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is with deep sense of gratitude I acknowledge the help and encouragement of my guide, Dr. P. S. Mundinamani, Reader, Department of Studies in Economics, Karnataka University, Dharwad. His guidance and valuable suggestions were of immense use for developing this study.

I am thankful to Dr. M. A. Adhoni, Chairman, Department of Studies in Economics, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for his encouragement during my studies. My sincere thanks to Dr. M. C. Kodli, Dr. S. R. Narappanavar, and all my teachers in the Department of Studies in Economics, Karnataka University, Dharwad for their help and co-operation in my study.

I had the rare privilege of consulting and getting the guidance of the outstanding academicians of the Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Deonar, Bombay, particularly Prof. P. Ramachandran, Prof. J. C. Sharma and Prof. R. D. Naik. They were kind enough to give me the much-needed help and direction required in research. I am highly indebted to them.

I am highly grateful to Shri. M. S. Kamath, Principal, M. E. S. College, Zuarinagar, Goa for his sympathetic interest and continuous encouragement in the progress of my study. He helped me to get the U.G.C. Teacher Fellowship for the completion of this study. I also thank my learned colleagues for their encouragement during the course of my research.

My special thanks are due to Dr. A. E. Punit, Department of Sociology and Dr. C. R. Karisiddappa, Department of Library and Information Science, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for their co-operation and timely assistance.

My grateful thanks are due to Dr. P. R. Dubhashi, Vice-Chancellor, Goa University, for going through the research design and making valuable suggestions.

I am thankful to the Branch Managers and Staff of the Canara Bank, St. Cruz, the Indian Overseas Bank, St. Estevam, the State Bank of India, St. Estevam, the State Bank of India, Agonda and the State Bank of India, Maxem for furnishing the needed information. My special thanks are due to Sri. P. S. Kamat for his co-operation and assistance.

My heartfelt thanks are due to the respondents (sample borrowers) of St. Cruz, St. Estevam, Agonda and Maxem, for their co-operation in the collection of the primary data.

To the Librarians and staff of the Karnataka, Goa and Bombay Universities, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Bombay, National Social Science Documentation Centre, Delhi, and M.E.S. College, Zuarinagar, Goa, I am thankful for extending to me all reference facilities possible.
I am overwhelmed with sincere feelings of gratitude to my husband Dr. Ramesh Gaonkar for his co-operation and constant encouragement, without which thesis would not have been completed. I also thank my children Vijay and Vibha for their co-operation and assistance during my study.

I find no words to express my gratitude to my parents Smt. Kamala and Sri. Yashwant Naik and parents-in-law, Smt. Susheela and Shri Vishwanath Gaonkar for their continuous encouragement during this study. My heart is full of appreciation to my younger sister Sucheta for her selfless involvement and assistance in my study. My special thanks are due to Smt. and Shri. P.Y. Naik, Smt. and Shri. G.P. Sawant, brothers-in-law and all my family members for their encouragement in my study.

And finally I thank all those who helped me directly or indirectly in completing this study.
